African Ways A. Okechukwu Ogbonnaya, 2001 African Ways answers the question of how we can use the African world view to structure Christian Religious Education Its aim is to provide a theoretical and practical definition and outworking frame of communication

Futurism and the African Imagination Dike Okoro, 2021-12-30 This book investigates how African authors and artists have explored themes of the future and technology within their works Afrofuturism was coined in the 1990s as a means of exploring the intersection of African diaspora culture with technology science and science fiction

However this book argues that literature and other arts within Africa have always reflected on themes of futurism across diverse forms of speculative writing including science fiction images spirituality myth magical realism the supernatural performance and other forms of oral resources This book reflects on themes of African futurism across a range of literary and artistic works also investigating how problems such as racism sexism social injustice and postcolonialism are reflected in these narratives Chapters cover authors artists movements and performers such Wole Soyinka Ben Okri Ngugi wa Thiong o Elechi Amadi Mazisi Kunene Nnedi Okorafor Lauren Beukes Leslie Nneka Arimah and the New African Movement The book also includes a range of original interviews with prominent authors and artists including Tanure Ojaide Lauren Beukes Patricia Jabbeh Wesley Benjamin Kwakye Ntongela Masilela and Bruce Onobrakpeya Interdisciplinary in its approach this book will be an important resource for researchers across the fields of African literature philosophy culture and politics

Postcolonial Agency in African and Diasporic Literature and Film Lokangaka Losambe,2022-01-31 This book chronicles the rise and the development of postcolonial agency since Africa s encounter with Western modernity through African and African diaspora literature and film Using African and African diasporic imaginaries creative writings autobiographies polemical writings and filmic media the author shows how African subjects have resisted enslavement and colonial domination over the past centuries and how they have sought to reshape global modernity Authors and film makers whose works are examined in detail include Olaudah Equiano Haile Gerima Amma Asante George Washington Williams William Sheppard Wole Soyinka Dani Kouyat Chris Abani Chimamanda Adichie and Leila Aboulela Providing a critical study of nativism hybridity and post hybrid conjunctive consciousness this book will be of interest to students and scholars of African and African diasporic literature history and cultural studies The De-Africanization of African Art Denis Ekpo,Pfunzo Sidogi,2021-08-12 This book argues for a radical new approach to thinking about art and creativity in Africa challenging outdated normative discourses about Africa s creative heritage Africanism which is driven by a traumatic response to colonialism in Africa has an almost unshakable stranglehold on the content stylistics and meaning of art in Africa Post African aesthetics insists on the need to move beyond this counter colonial self consciousness and considerably change re work and enlarge the ground principles and mission of artistic imagination and creativity in Africa This book critiques and dismantles the tropes of Africanism and Afrocentrism providing the criteria and methodology for a Post African art theory or Post African aesthetics Grounded initially in essays by Denis Ekpo the father of Post Africanism the book then explores a range of applications and interpretations of Post African theory to the art forms and creative practices in Africa With particular reference to South Africa this book will be of interest to researchers across the disciplines of Art Literature Media Studies Cultural Anthropology and African Studies The Holy Spirit and Salvation in African Christian Theology David Tonghou Ngong,2010 Revision of author s thesis Ph D Baylor University 2007 under title The material in salvific discourse a study of two Christian perspectives Travel and the Pan African Imagination Tracy Keith Flemming,2021 Travel and the Pan African Imagination explores the African Atlantic world as a productive theater or space where modernity racialized dominance and racialized resistance took form The book stresses the importance of placing three Atlantic figures the Charleston South Carolina based armed resistance leader Denmark Vesey the West African emigration advocate Edward Wilmot Blyden and the Christian missionary and teacher in Liberia as well as the United States Alexander Crummell within an Atlantic context and as African world community figures between the late eighteenth and early twentieth centuries The book also examines the religious origins of Black Power ideology and modern Pan Africanism as products of the intense dialogue within the African world community about concepts of modernity progress and civilization Tracy Keith Flemming identifies how travel and social mobility led to the generation of an ever more complex and dynamic Atlantic world and of a fluid and adaptive African world community imagination for those figures who were forced to operate within and against a racially framed universe The vexing social position and symbolic figure of the African was central to the dilemmas facing the racialized imagination of African world community figures and the discipline of Africology

Postcolonialism in the Wake of the Nairobi Revolution A. Amoko,2010-10-25 This work examines both the emergence of African literature and its institutionalization within nationalist African academies Amoko analyzes the relationship between such institutions of literature and the processes of nationalist legitimization and between colonial and postcolonial school cultures and national cultures

Language and Literature in the African American Imagination Carol Blackshire-Belay,1992-11-30 Drawing together scholars from communication literature philosophy linguistics and other fields this edited collection examines the current thinking on African American literature and language Some of the most significant writers and thinkers in the field have contributed their views on all major aspects of the topic The widespread debate over the canon in American literature the issue of cultural diversity and the need to have books with critical inquiry into African American culture make this collection suitable for scholars and students in diverse fields

Africa Writes Back to Self Evan M. Mwangi,2010-07-02 The profound effects of colonialism and its legacies on African cultures have led postcolonial scholars of recent African literature to characterize contemporary African novels as first and foremost responses to colonial domination by the West In Africa Writes Back to Self Evan Maina Mwangi argues instead that the novels are primarily engaged in conversation with each other particularly over emergent gender issues such as the representation of homosexuality and the disenfranchisement of women by male dominated governments He covers the work of canonical novelists Nadine Gordimer Chinua Achebe Ngu gi wa Thiong o and J M Coetzee as well as popular writers such as Grace Ogot David Maillu Promise Okekwe and Rebeka Njau Mwangi examines the novels self reflexive fictional strategies and their potential to refigure the dynamics of gender and sexuality in Africa and demote the West as the reference point for cultures of the Global South

Justice and Human Rights in the African Imagination Chielozona Eze,2021-04-15 Justice and Human Rights in the African Imagination is an interdisciplinary reading of justice in literary texts and memoirs films and social anthropological texts in postcolonial Africa

Inspired by Nelson Mandela and South Africa's robust achievements in human rights this book argues that the notion of restorative justice is integral to the proper functioning of participatory democracy and belongs to the moral architecture of any decent society. Focusing on the efforts by African writers, scholars, artists, and activists to build flourishing communities, the author discusses various quests for justice such as environmental justice, social justice, intimate justice, and restorative justice. It discusses in particular ecological violence, human rights abuses such as witchcraft accusations, the plight of people affected by disability, homophobia, misogyny, and sex trafficking, and forgiveness. This book will be of interest to scholars of African literature and films, literature and human rights, and literature and the environment.

Journal of the Royal African Society, 1909 Africa in the American Imagination Carol Magee, 2012-04-26

In the American world, the presence of African culture is sometimes fully embodied and sometimes leaves only a trace. Africa in the American Imagination (Popular Culture, Racialized Identities, and African Visual Culture) explores this presence, examining Mattel's world of Barbie, the 1996 Sports Illustrated swimsuit issue, and Disney World, each of which repackages African visual culture for consumers. Because these cultural icons permeate American life, they represent the broader U.S. culture and its relationship to African culture. This study integrates approaches from art history and visual culture studies with those from culture, race, and popular culture studies to analyze this interchange. Two major threads weave throughout. One analyzes how the presentation of African visual culture in these popular culture forms conceptualizes Africa for the American public. The other investigates the way the uses of African visual culture focuses America's own self-awareness, particularly around black and white racialized identities. In exploring the multiple meanings that Africa has in American popular culture, Africa in the American Imagination argues that these cultural products embody multiple perspectives and speak to various sociopolitical contexts: the Cold War, civil rights, and contemporary eras of the United States; the apartheid and post-apartheid eras of South Africa; the colonial and postcolonial eras of Ghana; and the European era of African colonization.
