Cultural Codes Bill Banfield,2009-12-10 No art can survive without an understanding of and dedication to the values envisioned by its creators No culture over time has existed without a belief system to sustain its survival Black music is no different In Cultural Codes Makings of a Black Music Philosophy William C Banfield engages the reader in a conversation about the aesthetics and meanings that inform this critical component of our social consciousness By providing a focused examination of the historical development of Black music artistry Banfield formulates a useable philosophy tied to how such music is made shaped and functions In so doing he explores Black music culture from three angles history education and the creative work of the musicians who have moved the art forward In addition to tracing Black music from its African roots to its various contemporary expressions including jazz soul R B funk and hip hop Banfield profiles some of the most important musicians over the last century W C Handy Scott Joplin Louis Armstrong Duke Ellington Count Basie Mary Lou Williams John Coltrane James Brown Jimi Hendrix and Stevie Wonder among others Cultural Codes provides an educational and philosophical framework for students and scholars interested in the traditions the development the innovators and the relevance of Black music Black Notes William C. Banfield,2004 Following in the footsteps of renowned authors like Alain Locke Harold Cruse and Amiri Baraka Black Notes Essays of A Musician Writing in A Post Album Age takes as its mission an important aesthetic inquiry asking the compelling questions How did we get where we are What s next among this generation s artistic voices concerns and practices What is the future of Black Popular Music In this fascinating collection of essays interviews and notes Author William C Banfield celebrates and critiques the values of contemporary Black popular music through the exploration of both present and past voices and movements From his unique vantage point as musician artist and writer Banfield examines a variety of influences in the music world from 17th century composer violinist Chevalier de St Georges to jazz giant Duke Ellington from producer Quincy Jones to pop legend Prince Using a wide angle lens Banfield effectively draws from the academic world of cultural studies as well as a plethora of popular culture examples including contemporary Black American composers films and television shows Journal of Arts and Social Sciences ,1998

African Musical Aesthetics John Murungi,2011-05-25 In the West philosophy is generally confined to the domain of the intellect and music to the domain of the emotion This book makes either domain the location for the other African musical aesthetics constitutes this location and has its home in it Moreover since the separation of the domain of the intellect and the domain of emotion represents a bifurcation of what it is to be a human being and by making either domain the location of the other what African musical aesthetics accomplishes is the affirmation of a unified sense of what it is to be a human being Accordingly the unity of philosophy and music give rises to a unified sense of being human It is to such unity that African musical aesthetics takes us For African musical aesthetics to accomplish this task this book challenges the conventional Western understanding of philosophy an understanding that projects Africa as devoid of philosophy It is this projection that pervaded Africa during the colonial period and it is the projection that is challenged in African philosophy From an African philosophical perspective African musical aesthetics turns out to be an emancipatory process that seeks to affirm the humanity of Africans but also a process that seeks to affirm common humanity Music is not solely a matter of audiology what is played or what one dances to It has its elemental task in calling our attention to what we are as human beings In so far as it is sensuous it constitutes us as members of the sensible world and links us intrinsically to all that is sensuous It is more than humanism Music registers us as members of nature It is nature naturing The African Roots of Jazz Fredrick Kaufman,John P.
