African Theatre Soyinka:

Ngũgĩ Wa Thiong'o & Wole Soyinka Martin Banham, James Gibbs, Femi Osofisan, Kimani Njogu, 2014 Directors and collaborators assess and comment on the production of plays by West Africa's Nobel Laureate Wole Soyinka and East Africa's most influential author Ngugi wa Thiong'o. Wole Soyinka and Ngugi wa Thiong'o are the pre-eminent playwrights of West and East Africa respectively and their work has been hugely influential across the continent. This volume features directors' experiences of recent productions of their plays, the voices of actors and collaborators who have worked with the playwrights and also provides a digest of their theatrical output. Contributors provide new readings of Ngugi and Soyinka's classic texts and an stimulating new approach for students of English Theatre and African studies. The playscript for this volume is a previously unpublished radio play by Wole Soyinka entitled A Rain of Stones first broadcast on BBC Radio 4 in 2002. Volume Editors: MARTIN BANHAM, James Gibbs, Senior Visiting Research Fellow, University of the West of England; Femi Osofisan, Professor of Drama at the University of Ibadan; Jane Plastow, Professor of African Theatre, University of Leeds; Yvette Hutchison, Associate Professor, Department of Theatre Performance Studies, University of Warwick. African Theatre Wole Soyinka, 2005 A special issue devoted to early revue sketches by Wole Soyinka which have never been published outside Nigeria before Soyinka's most recent plays The Beatification of Area Boy and King Baabu draw strongly on characters and incidents first created in Soyinka's revues and satirical songs such as Before the Blackout and Unlimited Liability Company. Before the Blackout, staged in the late 1960s, was published in Nigeria by Orisun Acting Editions but is now a rarity. Unlimited Liability Company exists as a long playing record, again rare. Other material including the Unife Theatre Guerilla Unit's Before the Blowout exists only in manuscript. Very few younger students of Soyinka's work are aware of this material or have access to it. This volume brings these brilliant satirical works of Soyinka's back to life and offers contextualizing commentaries from Martin Banham, Femi Osofisan and colleagues of Soyinka's associated with this early but fundamentally formative work. Contents: Preface by Martin Banham; Back to Before by Martin Banham; Introduction: Introduction to Before the Blackout; Soyinka at Work: Recollections by Joachim Fiebach; Chuck Mike Big Game Safari; Polling Booth 77H; Priority Project; Interview Panel; Olympic Torch Bearer; Ricee; Emergency Anthem; Before the Deluge program and poster; Before the Deluge; Song of the Lagoon; Nomad; Population Control; Homage to Yellow Thrones; A Little to the Left; Unlimited Liability Company; Green Revolution; Playscript; The Invention; Book Reviews. Modern African Drama Biodun Jeyifo, 2002 Presents eight twentieth century plays from seven African countries along with explanatory notes and over thirty background writings and works of criticism. African Theatre Martin Banham, James Morel Gibbs, James Gibbs, Femi Osofisan, 2001 This second annual volume in the African Theatre series focuses on the intersection of politics and theatre in Africa today. Topics include the remarkable collaboration between Horse and Bamboo, a puppet theatre company based in the United Kingdom and Nigerian playwright Sam Ukala that was inspired by the infamous execution of Nigerian playwright Ken Saro Wiwa and other

Ogoni activists the plays of Femi Osofisan and plays by Ghanaian playwrights Joe de Graft and Mohammed Ben Abdallah African Theatre features the work of Mauritian playwright Dev Virahsawmy and includes an interview with him reviews of an English production of his play Toufann as well as the translated playscript Reports of workshops and conferences reviews and news of the year in African theatre make this volume a valuable resource for anyone interested in current issues in African drama and performance

African Theatre Martin Banham,James Morel Gibbs,James Gibbs,Femi Osofisan,2002

The contributions to this volume in the African Theatre series make clear that the role of women in the theatre across the continent has changed as control is mainly held by literate elites and women s traditional standing has been lost to men

African Popular Theatre David Kerr,1995 African popular theater includes conventional drama plus such nonliterary performance as dance mime storytelling masquerades vaudeville improvization the theater of social action resistance Media such as radio film television are included

African Theatre in Development Martin Banham,James Gibbs,Femi Osofisan,Jane Plastow,1999 A truly worthwhile resource in a growing field of research the theater and drama of Africa this volume collects ten essays about theater practice publications and productions in depth reviews of 17 books and a new play Choice a must have for anybody interested in issues relating to theatre and development in Africa a pioneering effort H Net Reviews Art as a tool weapon or shield This compelling issue and others are explored in this diverse collection of intriguing perspectives on African theatre in development Also here strategies in staging propoganda and mass education and a discussion of the playwright Alemseged Tesfai s career in service to Eritrean liberation

Wole Soyinka Biodun Jeyifo,2003-11-13 Biodun Jeyifo examines the connections between the innovative and influential writings of Wole Soyinka and his radical political activism Jeyifo carries out detailed analyses of Soyinka s most ambitious works relating them to the controversies generated by Soyinka s use of literature and theatre for radical political purposes He gives a fascinating account of the profound but paradoxical affinities and misgivings Soyinka has felt about the significance of the avant garde movements of the twentieth century Jeyifo also explores Soyinka s works with regard to the impact on his artistic sensibilities of the pervasiveness of representational ambiguity and linguistic exuberance in Yoruba culture The analyses and evaluations of this study are presented in the context of Soyinka s sustained engagement with the violence of collective experience in post independence postcolonial Africa and the developing world No existing study of Soyinka s works and career has attempted such a systematic investigation of their complex relationship to politics

African Theatre Aesthetics Omotayo Oloruntoba-Oju,2014-08-27 African Theatre Aesthetics continues the enquiry into the issue of authenticity in African drama and theatre It examines the various parameters that have been employed by scholars and critics over the past four to five decades in the attempt to answer the question What exactly constitutes African theatre or African theatre aesthetics The book boldly navigates the murky waters of heterogeneity that complicates the identity claims of so called African theatre and manages to conclude with what might be termed a consensus position on the manifestations of Africanness in the African theatre The employment of the works of two Nigerian dramatists Wole Soyinka and Femi Osofisan as exemplars of the quintessential African theatrical forms in this book is potentially contentious since so many other playwrights and indeed hundreds of theatre troupes and groups from different parts of Africa may equally and validly lay claim to strong representative values within the context However the book does make a strong case for the singularity of these two giants in the dramatic fields of Africa which also accounts for their celebrity status in discussions of contemporary African theatre

African Theatre Today Martin Banham, Clive Wake, 1976 Pre-colonial and Post-colonial Drama and Theatre in Africa Lokangaka Losambe, Devi Sarinjeive, 2001 In this collection of essays written from different critical perspectives African playwrights demonstrate through their art that they are not only witnesses but also consciences of their societies African Drama and Performance John Conteh-Morgan, Tejumola Olaniyan, 2004-10 This title explores the diversity of the performing arts in Africa and the diaspora from studies of major dramatic authors and formal literary dramas to improvisational theatre and popular video films Performative Inter-Actions in African Theatre 1 Kene Igweonu, Osita Okagbue, 2014-01-14 This book is part of a three volume book set published under the general title of Performative Inter Actions in African Theatre Each of the three books in the set has a unique subtitle that works to better focus its content and differentiates it from the other two volumes The contributors backgrounds and global spread adequately reflect the international focus of the three books that make up the collection The contributions in their various ways demonstrate the many advances and ingenious solutions adopted by African theatre practitioners in tackling some of the challenges arising from the adverse colonial experience as well as the one sided advance of globalisation The contributions attest to the thriving nature of African theatre and performance which in the face of these challenges has managed to retain its distinctiveness while at the same time acknowledging contesting and appropriating influences from elsewhere into an aesthetic that is identifiably African Consequently the three books are presented as a comprehensive exploration of the current state of African theatre and performance both on the continent and diaspora Performative Inter Actions in African Theatre 1 Diaspora Representations and the Interweaving of Cultures explores the idea that in and from their various locations around the world the plays of the African diaspora acknowledge and pay homage to the cultures of home while simultaneously articulating a sense of their Africanness in their various inter actions with their host cultures Contributions in Diaspora Representations and the Interweaving of Cultures equally attest to the notion that the diaspora as we see it is not solely located outside of the African continent itself but can be found in those performances in the continent that engage performatively with the West and other parts of the world in that process of articulating identity Contemporary African Plays Jane Plastow, Martin Banham, 1999 The plays included in this volume are Death and the King's Horseman by Wole Soyinka Anowa by Ama Ata Aidoo The Chattering and the Song by Femi Osofisan The Rise and Shine of Comrade Fiasco by Andrew Whalley Woza Albert by Percy Mtwa et al and The Other War by Alemseged Tesfai The Development of African Drama Michael

Etherton,2023-08-18 Originally published in 1982 this book explores concepts such as traditional performance and African theatre It analyses the links between drama and ritual and drama and music and diagnoses the confusions in our thought The reader is reminded that drama is never merely the printed word but that its existence as literature and in performance is necessarily different The analysis shows that literature tends to replace performance and drama removed from the popular domain becomes elitist The book s richness lies in the constantly stimulating analysis of art theatre as exemplified in protest plays in African adaptations and transpositions of such classical subjects as the Bacchae and Everyman in plays on African history on colonialism and neo colonialism The final chapters argue that the form of African drama needs to evolve as the content does World Encyclopedia of Contemporary Theatre Ousmane Diakhate,Hansel Ndumbe Eyoh,Don
