Africas Three Religions:

Africa's Three Religions Geoffrey Parrinder, 1976 Author examines the philosophic foundations of the traditional African religion and then looks at the impact Christianity and Islam have had on the culture

Africa's Three Religions Edward Geoffrey Parrinder, 1969

The Religious Traditions of Africa Elizabeth Isichei, 2004-11-23 This work is a first of its kind historical introduction to the major religions of Africa The vast majorities of Africa's peoples have been Muslim Christian or Traditionalist for a great deal of time making an inclusive study of these religions essential Isichei's work gives equal attention to all three religions and balances the elements of each to construct an easily accessible overview It is also the first book to provide a comprehensive look at the traditional religion in Africa filling the void in the literature on African religious history Written by a pioneering scholar in the African religious experience this volume blends in depth research and personnel accounts to explore the origins and effects of religion in Africa While primarily a work of history this book also incorporates the latest findings while engaging with current issues such as the interface of neo traditional religion and contemporary cultures This work includes four sections each dedicated to a separate religion detailed maps a glossary and a guide to further reading

Religions of Africa Lora Friedenthal, 2014-09-29 While African religions are as diverse as the continent itself most Africans can be placed in one of three groups followers of traditional religions Islam or Christianity Until the 20th century religion was rarely a primary source of conflict However in recent years Muslim Christian tensions have contributed to unrest in such nations as Nigeria Sudan and Tanzania This book is intended as an introduction to the practice of religion in Africa today It provides a brief history of religious development in Africa discusses the common religious practices in various regions of the continent and explores the role of religion in current African conflicts

Encyclopedia of African Religion Molefi Kete Asante, Ama Mazama, 2008-11-26 Numerous titles focusing on particular beliefs in Africa exist including Marcel Griaule's Conversations with Ogotemmel but this one presents an unparalleled exploration of a multitude of cultures and experiences It is both a gateway to deeper exploration and a penetrating resource on its own This is bound to become the definitive scholarly resource on African religions Library Journal Starred Review Overall because of its singular focus reliability and scope this encyclopedia will prove invaluable where there is considerable interest in Africa or in different religious traditions Library Journal As the first comprehensive work to assemble ideas concepts discourses and extensive essays in this vital area the Encyclopedia of African Religion explores such topics as deities and divinities the nature of humanity the end of life the conquest of fear and the quest for attainment of harmony with nature and other humans Editors Molefi Kete Asante and Ama Mazama include nearly 500 entries that seek to rediscover the original beauty and majesty of African religion Features Offers the best representation to date of the African response to the sacred Helps readers grasp the enormity of Africa's contribution to religious ideas by presenting richly textured concepts of spirituality ritual and initiation while simultaneously advancing new theological categories cosmological narratives and ways to conceptualize ethical behavior Provides readers with new metaphors figures of speech modes of reasoning etymologies analogies and cosmogonies Reveals the complexity texture and rhythms of the African religious tradition to provide scholars with a baseline for future works The Encyclopedia of African Religion is intended for undergraduate and graduate students in fields such as Religion Africana Studies Sociology and Philosophy An Introduction to African Philosophy Maurice Muhatia Makumba,2007 Mapping Systematic Theology in Africa Ernst M Conradie,Charl E Fredericks,2004-08-01 The emergence of an indigenous African theology especially since the 1960s is well documented A wealth of literature has been published in the context of African theology especially over the last two or three decades This indexed bibliography contains a number of publications in and for the African context specifically relevant to the fields of systematic theology and ethics Kwame Bediako and African Christian Scholarship Sara J. Fretheim,2018-04-17 In a departure from current theologically focused scholarship on Ghanaian theologian Kwame Bediako this book places him within the wider historical continuum of twentieth century Ghana and reads him as a leading Christian scholar within the African study of African religions The book traces a variety of influences and figures within this emerging African discourse in Ghana including aspects of missions and colonial history and the voices of poets politicians prophets and priests Locating Bediako within this complex twentieth century matrix this intellectual history draws upon his published and key unpublished works including his first masters and doctoral dissertations on Negritude literature an abiding influence on his later Christian thought and an essential foundation for interpreting this scholar This book also reads the Akrofi Christaller Institute of Theology Mission and Culture as text by Bediako revealing essential components of his intellectual and spiritual itinerary revealed in the Institute s community and curriculum This approach challenges narrowly focused theological scholarship on Bediako while highlighting critical methodological divisions between African Western confessional and non confessional approaches to the study of religion in Africa In doing so it highlights the rich complexity of this emerging African discourse and identifies Bediako as a pioneering African Christian intellectual within this wider field European Traditions in the Study of Religion in Africa Ulrich Berner,2004 This volume comprises case studies of five centuries of European encounters with and imaginations of Africa encompassing her triple religious heritage African Traditional Religions Christianity and Islam The introductory chapters outline the challenges and present overviews some of them also analyze the early accounts of European travelers and missionaries The following contributions examine the lasting legacy of the European Enlightenment in employing an ambivalent language of human equality and universalism while in actual fact consigning Africa to an inferior position It has been difficult for western scholars to divorce themselves wholly from the perceptions thus established However there have been quite different approaches This is indicated in the papers discussing the role and impact of influential European academics scholars of religion theologians historians and social scientists during the colonial and postcolonial period Other contributions examine specific institutional centers of African religious studies in Europe The concluding chapters critically assess European approaches and their use for the study of religion in Africa from an African perspective Critical Reflections on Indigenous Religions James L. Cox, 2016-04-22 The study of indigenous religions has become an important academic field particularly since the religious practices of indigenous peoples are being transformed by forces of globalization and transcontinental migration This book will further our understanding of indigenous religions by first considering key methodological issues related to defining and contextualizing the religious practices of indigenous societies both historically and in socio cultural situations Two further sections of the book analyse cases derived from European contexts which are often overlooked in discussion of indigenous religions and in two traditional areas of study South America and Africa Religions in Contemporary Africa Laura S. Grillo, Adriaan van Klinken, Hassan Ndzovu, 2019-03-28 Religions in Contemporary Africa is an accessible and comprehensive introduction to the three main religious traditions on the African continent African indigenous religions Christianity and Islam The book provides a historical overview of these important traditions and focuses on the roles they play in African societies today It includes social cultural and political case studies from across the continent on the following topical issues Witchcraft and modernity Power and politics Conflict and peace Media and popular culture Development Human rights Illness and health Gender and sexuality With suggestions for further reading discussion questions illustrations and a list of glossary terms this is the ideal textbook for students in religion African studies and adjacent fields approaching this subject area for the first time UNESCO General History of Africa, Vol. VII, Abridged Edition Unesco. International Scientific Committee for the Drafting of a General History of Africa, 1990-06-25 This volume reflects how the different peoples of Africa view their civilizations and shows the historical relationships between the various parts of the continent Historical connections with other continents demonstrate Africa's contribution to the development of human civilization Human Rights in the 21st Century Kathleen E. Mahoney, Paul Mahoney, 2023-07-24 This unique and challenging volume is the result of a major international rights conference entitled Human Rights in the Twenty First Century A Global Challenge convened in Banff Alberta Canada in November 1990 The conference was supported and organized under the auspices of the Secretary General of the Council of Europe The European Court of Human Rights the European Human Rights Commission the Strasbourg Institute of Comparative Human Rights Law the Alberta Law Foundation and the International Centre at the University of Calgary Its main objectives were legal education and legal research which were met by a total of 92 speakers representing 24 different nationalities presenting their views on 24 human rights topics Women and participants from developing countries in particular brought a new vision of human rights to topics as varied as reproductive technology state violence and biotechnology The theme of this book is thus the interdependence of legal social economic and environmental problems which transcend national and international boundaries and the spirit of solidarity which is required to resolve them Written by a team of international and renowned human experts it will provide a substantial contribution to the legal literature on international human rights Comparative

Studies of African Traditional Religions Emefie Ikenga Metuh, 1987 An African Concept of Law and Order Simeon Onyewueke Eboh, 2003 This continuation on a higher level of an earlier work by the author is an exploration of African cultural heritage as such it is a journey to the source and fountain of African cultural values It shows the existence of an African pre colonial democratic and republican structure of government that is ordered achievement oriented patriotic and altruistic Simeon Onyewueke Eboh lectures at the Catholic Institute of West Africa CIWA Port Harcourt Nigeria in the Department of Canonical Law specializing in the philosophy of law and public ecclesiastical law Christ and Christianity: The light of the ages (Asia, Africa, Europe) Hugh Reginald Haweis, 1887 African Traditions in the Study of Religion in Africa Afeosemimo Unuose Adogame, Ezra Chitando, Bolaji Bateye, 2012 This book presents a unique exploration of African traditions in the study of religion in Africa and the new African diaspora Contributors drawn from diverse African and global contexts situate current scholarly traditions of the study of African religions within the purview of academic encounter and exchanges with non African scholars and non African contexts Jacob Kehinde Olupona stands out as a pioneer in the socio scientific interpretation of African indigenous religion and religions in Africa This book is to mark his immense contribution to an emerging field of study and research The Secret of the African Edwin William Smith, 1929 Blacks and Religion Robin Walker, 2014-06-12 What is the world's oldest religion What is the true religion for Black people What was Africa's original religion Early Africa and its religious heritage should be of interest to the people of modern Africa and the Black Diaspora Divided into three parts this book Blacks and Religion Volume One addresses the big questions The first part of this book is entitled What did Africa contribute to the Origin of Religion It addresses the Ancient and Traditional African religions and shows the common concepts that existed between them The second part of this book is entitled The Equinox and the Real Story behind Easter It addresses the Spring Equinox and shows that many early religions practiced similar ideas at that time of the year The third part of this book is entitled Understanding the Book of the Dead It addresses the content and symbolism of the Egyptian Book of the Dead This is the most influential set of religious texts in the history of religion While superficially difficult to understand the Egyptian Book of the Dead is not as strange or as difficult a text as it at first appears The Light of the Ages (Asia, Africa, Europe) Hugh Reginald Haweis, 1887
