My Heart After Esther: A Mystic's Philosophy of Love Collins I. Aki, 2017-01-24 My Heart After Esther could be considered a philosophy of love in the skin of a romance novel or a romance novel in the skin of a philosophy of love but it is ultimately a story about love and philosophy in a way that romances the two In this work of literary meta fiction two stories are interwoven into one The first story is about the translator of the second story Gustav Z Itohahn and his love for the author and his work he is translating the mysterious pseudo philosopher Jorge Manuel Belmarez In the second story we read Itohahn s presentation of Belmarez s story of love which dares to challenge every idea of love and marriage from the vow till death do we part to the old courtly love edict that marriage is no proper defense against love This new take on philosophical fiction may somehow find itself in the memory of its readers as more than an experiment in story telling but truly an experiment in challenging our deepest ideas and beliefs

The Top Ten Death Penalty Myths Rudolph J. Gerber, John M. Johnson, 2007-11-30 The death penalty remains one of the most controversial issues in the United States Its proponents claim many things in their defense of its continued application For example they claim that it deters crime that death by lethal injection is painless and humane that it is racially neutral and that it provides closure to families of the victims In this comprehensive review of the major death penalty issues the authors systematically dismantle each one of these myths about capital punishment in a hard hitting critique of how our social political and community leaders have used fear and myth symbolic politics to misrepresent the death penalty as a public policy issue They successfully demonstrate how our political and community leaders have used myth and emotional appeals to misrepresent the facts about capital executions Successive chapters address the following topics the notion of community bonding the expectation of effective crime fighting the desire for equal justice deterrence the hope for fidelity to the Constitution the claim of error free justice closure retribution cost effectiveness and the messianic desires of some politicians In each of these areas the authors quote from death penalty advocates making these claims and then proceed to analyze and ultimately dismember the claimed advantages of the death penalty

The Art of the

Documentary Megan Cunningham, 2014-04-11 Documentary filmmaking is a powerful and vital element to our society and those who are responsible for bringing real stories and issues to a creative medium often have an uncanny ability to make a deep connection to us with their art. Legendary directors and cinematographers such as the Maysles brothers, D. A. Pennebaker, Chris Hegedus, Errol Morris, or Ken Burns have vividly made their marks in recent decades and continue to inspire those who enter the field. Inexpensive video camera equipment and video editing software have helped fuel a new wave of truth tellers bringing the tools of the craft within reach of amateurs and students as well as independent journalists and filmmakers on a budget. In The Art of the Documentary, the directors, editors, cinematographers, and producers behind today's most thought-provoking nonfiction films reveal the thought processes, methods, and collaborations that have guided their efforts from project conception to developing, producing, shooting, editing, and releasing some of the finest documentary films of recent decades. This richly illustrated volume, which will appeal to professional and aspiring filmmakers as well as documentary enthusiasts, features conversations with directors, cinematographers, editors, and producers including Ken Burns, The Civil War, Jazz, Baseball, director/cinematographer D. A. Pennebaker, Dont Look Back, The War Room, director/cinematographer Albert Maysles, Gimme Shelter, Grey Gardens, director Errol Morris, The Fog of War, The Thin Blue Line, director Chris Hegedus, Startup.com, Down from the Mountain, editor Larry Silk, Pumping Iron, Wild Man Blues, cinematographer Buddy Squires, The Civil War, Ram Dass, Fierce Grace, director/producer Lauren Lazin, Tupac Resurrection, Journey of Dr. Dre, editor/director Paula Heredia, The Vagina Monologues, In Memoriam New York City 9/11/01, director/cinematographer Kirsten Johnson, Fahrenheit 9/11, Innocent Until Proven Guilty, editor Geof Bartz, Lenny Bruce, Swear to Tell the Truth, He's Having a Baby, Sheila Nevins, President of HBO Documentaries and HBO Family, Alison Bourke, executive producer for IFC, Cara Mertes, executive producer at PBS for the POV series, Frazer Pennebaker, producer, and with contributions by Carol Dysinger, film editor and professor, NYU Film School, and Haskell Wexler, cinematographer. A Note About the Second Edition: In this edition of the book, we have included the original full interviews of the producers that did not appear in the first edition. Those producers include Sheila Nevins, Lauren Lazin, Alison Palmer Bourke, Cara Mertes, and Frazer Pennebaker. The interviews of the directors, cinematographers, and editors have been left in tact and are included as they appeared in the first edition. The filmographies of each interviewee have been updated to include recent works.

Latinos and Criminal Justice José Luis Morín, 2016-03-28 This unique compilation of essays and entries provides critical insights into the Latino experience with the U.S. criminal justice system. Concerns about immigration's relationship to crime make accurate information and critical analysis of the utmost importance. Latinos and Criminal Justice: An Encyclopedia promotes understanding of Latinas and Latinos and the U.S. criminal justice system at the same time dispelling popular misconceptions about this population and criminal activity in the United States. Unlike a traditional encyclopedia comprised solely of A-Z entries, this work consists of two parts. Part I offers detailed essays on particularly important topics. Part II provides brief A Z entries Topics are crossreferenced to enable easy research Among the wide range of topics covered are policing and police misconduct incarceration the war on drugs gangs border crime and racial profiling Historically important issues and events relative to the Latino experience of criminal justice in the United States are also included as are key legal cases

Routledge Handbook on Capital Punishment Robert M. Bohm,Gavin Lee,2017-12-15 Capital punishment is one of the more controversial subjects in the social sciences especially in criminal justice and criminology Over the last decade or so the United States has experienced a significant decline in the number of death sentences and executions Since 2007 eight states have abolished capital punishment bringing the total number of states without the death penalty to 19 plus the District of Columbia and more are likely to follow suit in the near future Nebraska reinstated its death penalty in 2016 Worldwide 70 percent of countries have abolished capital punishment in law or in practice The current trend suggests the eventual demise of capital punishment in all but a few recalcitrant states and countries Within this context a fresh look at capital punishment in the United States and worldwide is warranted The Routledge Handbook on Capital Punishment comprehensively examines the topic of capital punishment from a wide variety of perspectives A thoughtful introductory chapter from experts Bohm and Lee presents a contextual framework for the subject matter and chapters present state of the art analyses of a range of aspects of capital punishment grouped into five sections 1 Capital Punishment History Opinion and Culture 2 Capital Punishment Rationales and Religious Views 3 Capital Punishment and Constitutional Issues 4 The Death Penalty s Administration and 5 The Death Penalty s Consequences This is a key collection for students taking courses in prisons penology criminal justice criminology and related subjects and is also an essential reference for academics and practitioners working in prison service or in related agencies
