After A War:

Justice After War David Chiwon Kwon, 2023-05-12 Justice After War is aimed especially to both undergraduate and graduate students as well as the general audience who want to understand the significance of a recent development within the just war tradition namely the increasing attention given to the category of jus post bellum postwar justice and peace While examining the interrelated challenges of moral and social norms in both political and legal domains as well as church practices this work proposes an innovative methodology for linking theology ethics and social science so that the ideal and the real can inform each other in the ethics of war and peacebuilding The main task of this project then is to identify what the author views as three key themes of jus post bellum and three practices that are essential to implementing jus post bellum immediately after a war just policing just punishment and just political participation David Kwon endeavors to challenge the view of those who suggest that reconciliation mainly political reconciliation is the foremost ambition of jus post bellum Instead he attempts to justify the proposition that achieving just policing just punishment and just political participation are essential to building a just peace a peace in which the fundamental characteristic must be human security It thus demonstrates that human security is an oft neglected theme in the recent discourse of moral theologians and that a more balanced understanding of jus post bellum will direct attention to the elements composing human security in a postwar context

OPEN/ Pierre's journey after war Margareth Stewart , 2021-01-28 OPEN Pierre s Journey after War is an intimate story of a man whose wife and children are killed during bombardments of France in WWII Devastated and embittered Pierre leaves everything behind and embarks on an odyssey to bury his past in the darkest recesses of his mind The journey which lasts more than forty years involves a sequence of events and coincidences that ultimately provide him new direction and a sense of purpose Pierre feels at home in moving from place to place When his mission in a specific village or town is accomplished he wanders once again observing and savouring whatever life offers His activities are circumstantial and unpredictable Intuitively he remains on the move to reconcile his past while his future stands still He returns to France an old man On a day on a walk past vineyards near his former home Pierre is offered a lift by a couple whose absurd whimsical presence vividly contrasts with whatever solemn tranquillity he had found through his consequential journey and search for redemption Pierre for the first time is inspired to speak of his past
