

UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN

How do we say goodbye to you,
When our hearts are breaking, split in two?
The world feels colder, the days more grey,
Since the moment you quietly slipped away.

Your voice, your touch, the warmth you gave,
Are now memories we desperately crave.
We search for you in every dawn,
But all we find is that you're gone.

In every corner, your absence screams,
And in our sleep, you fill our dreams.
We ache for the moments we'll never reclaim,
The laughter, the love, the whisper of your name.

But in this pain, a truth we find,
You live on in the hearts you've left behind.
In every tear, a piece of you remains,
In every smile, your joy sustains.

We'll carry your love, though the road feels long,
In the quiet of night, in the morning song.
And though we weep for what we've lost,
We cherish the gift, no matter the cost.

Until we meet again, dear soul,
In a place where hearts are whole.
You're not just a memory; you're part of our being,
In every tear, in every sigh, in every loving feeling.
