Against All Enemies

William did not understand why we were going to talk about this one man, bin Laden."

"We are talking about a network of massive organizations called al Qaeda, that happens to be led by bin Laden, and we are talking about the network because it and it alone poses an immediate and serious threat to the United States," I answered....

William turned to me. "You give bin Laden too much credit. It wouldn't be all these things like the 1993 attack on New York, nor with any other groups. Just because FBI and CIA have failed to find the bad guys does not mean they don't exist." I could hardly believe it, but William was actually repeating the exactly discredited Laurie Mylroie nonsense that they was behind the conspiracy behind the World Trade Center, a theory that had been investigated for years and found to be completely untrue.
