Age Narrative And Migration:

Age, Narrative and Migration Katy Gardner, 2020-12-07 Whilst the vast majority of recent research on identity and ethnicity amongst South Asians in Britain has focused upon younger people this book deals with Bengali elders the first generation of migrants from Sylhet in Bangladesh The book describes how many of these elders face the processes of ageing sickness and finally death in a country where they did not expect to stay and where they do not necessarily feel they belong The ways in which they talk about and deal with this and in particular their ambivalence towards Britain and Bangladesh lies at the heart of the book Centrally the book is based around the men and women's life stories In her analysis of these Gardner shows how narratives play an important role in the formation of both collective and individual identity and are key domains for the articulation of gender and age Underlying the stories that people tell and sometimes hidden within their gaps and silences are often other issues and concerns Using particular idioms and narrative devices the elders talk about the contradictions and disjunctions of transmigration their relationship with and sometimes resistance to the British State and what they often present as the breakdown of traditional ways In addition to this the book shows that histories stories and identity are not just narrated through words but also through the body an area rarely theorized in studies of migration

Retirement Home? Ageing Migrant Workers in France and the Question of Return Alistair Hunter, 2018-03-29 This open access book offers new insights into the ageing migration nexus and the nature of home Documenting the hidden world of France's migrant worker hostels it explores why older North and West African men continue to live past retirement age in this sub standard housing Conventional wisdom holds that at retirement labour migrants ought to instead return to their families in home countries where their French pensions would have far greater purchasing power This paradox is the point of departure for a book which transports readers from the banlieues of Paris to the banks of the Senegal River and the villages of the Anti Atlas In intimate ethnographic detail the author brings to life the experiences of these older labour migrants by sharing in the life of the hostels as a resident by observing at close quarters the men's family life on the other side of the Mediterranean as a guest in their homes and even by accompanying them in their travels by bus sea and air The monograph evaluates several theories of migration against rich qualitative data gathered from multiple methods biographical narrative and semi structured interviews participant observation and archival research In the process it offers a thoughtful contribution to broader debates on what it means for migrants to belong and achieve inclusion in society This book has been awarded an honourable mention in the Khayrallah Prize in Migration Studies courtesy of the Moise A Khayrallah Center for Lebanese Diaspora Studies at North Carolina State University For more information please see <https://lebanesestudies.ncsu.edu/awards/scholarly/2018.php> This book has been nominated for the 2019 BSA Philip Abrams Memorial Prize Sikh Diaspora, 2013-08-29 Sikh Diaspora Theory Agency and Experience is a collection of essays offering new insights into the diverse experiences of Sikhs beyond the Punjab Moving beyond migration history and global in their scope the essays in this

Voices of Women Writers Elena Anna Spagnuolo, 2023-10-10 This book investigates the practice of writing and self translating phenomenon of self translation within the context of mobility through the analysis of a corpus of narratives written by authors who were born in Italy and then moved to English speaking countries Emphasizing writing and self translating As practices which exists in conjunction with a process of redefinition of identity the book illustrates how these authors use language to negotiate and voice their identity in trans migratory contexts

The Family in Question R. D. Grillo, 2008 The family lives of immigrants and ethnic minority populations have become central to arguments about the right and wrong ways of living in multicultural societies While the characteristic cultural practices of such families have long been scrutinized by the media and policy makers these groups themselves are beginning to reflect on how to manage their family relationships Exploring case studies from Austria the Netherlands Norway Portugal Spain Switzerland the United Kingdom and Australia The Family in Question explores how those in public policy often dangerously reflect the popular imagination rather than recognizing the complex changes taking place within the global immigrant community In hoeverre allochtonen vrij zijn hun cultuur te uiten in de multiculturele samenleving staat bijna dagelijks ter discussie in de media en politiek Vaak wordt vergeten dat ook migrantenfamilies zelf worstelen om hun tradities en gebruiken vorm te geven in een pluriforme samenleving waarin relaties met familie zeer complex kunnen zijn In The Family Question worden migrantenfamilies in onder andere Nederland Oostenrijk en Noorwegen onderzocht Hieruit blijkt dat spelers op het vlak van beleidsvorming vaak toegeven aan populaire misverstanden over allochtonen en zo bijdragen aan de heersende xenofobie en stereotypering van immigranten

Pakistani Diasporas Virinder S. Kalra, 2009 When compared to studies of the Indian diaspora or even in the wider framework of diaspora studies there is relatively meagre research about the

Pakistani diaspora This collection is the first to bring together the extant literature and provide both a historical and contemporary set of accounts It is primarily about the processes associated with migration and settlement as seen from the receiving end Even though Roger Ballard and Junaid Rana offer accounts of Pakistan s political economy it is only in Frances Watkins chapter that migrant voices within Pakistan themselves speak Even in this chapter their life stories are focused on the impact of migration Though given the transnational frame in which many Pakistani diasporic communities live it is not really possible to solely focus on the place of settlement Indeed the shift from migration studies to transnational or diaspora research reflects the empirical reality of a non linear dynamics inherent in migratory movements Historically the notion that people move and settle in a sequential and traceable manner has been rightly disputed and the circular nature of migratory movements has come to the fore Even though the issues that are raised in the majority of the chapters are concerned with adaptation and change in new environments these are always linked or referenced to a transnational frame
