Fiction Catalog H.W. Wilson Company,1941 Includes an abridged edition of 1908 catalog issued under title English prose fiction list of about 800 title Standard Catalog Bimonthly H.W. Wilson Company,1921 John Henry Newman, the Romantic, the Friend, the Leader Mary Aloysi Kiener,1933 Standard Catalog Bimonthly ,1922 The Bookman ,1906 The Sphere ,1909 The Romantic New Orleanians Robert Tallant,1950 Anecdotal history of New Orleans composed largely of facts and stories about famous New Orleans families The Christian Leader ,1929 Ezra Pound and Dorothy Shakespear, Their Letters, 1909-1914 Ezra Pound,Dorothy Pound,1984 Ezra Listen to it Ezra Ezra And a third time Ezra Some people have complained of untidy boots how could they look at his boots when there is his moving beautiful face to watch These words from the notebook of Dorothy Shakespear dated February 16 1909 record the entry into her life of the energetic young American recently arrived in London who was to become her husband Ezra Pound Their correspondence begun the following year extends over more than six decades until the poet s death in 1972 All of these letters are of unusual literary interest but those from before their marriage in April 1914 have a special importance since few from this period have been published The standard edition of The Selected Letters of Ezra Pound edited by D D Paige includes none from 1910 1911 and only a handful from 1912 1913 yet these were the crucial years in Pound s literary development and in the shaping of early modernism The over two hundred letters and diary entries in Ezra Pound and Dorothy Shakespear Their Letters 1909 1914 are published here for the first time Taken together they provide a detailed record of the poet s search for a new style and give a full portrait of a dynamic young expatriate who was simultaneously involved in two literary generations the companion and close friend of Yeats and Ford Madox Hueffer as well as of Wyndham Lewis and the sculptor Gaudier Brzeska They also shed a poignant light on The Pisan Cantos of 1945 where amid the ruins of his life Pound recalled again and again the events and people described in these letters as if the memory of 1909 1914 was the only stable point left in a disintegrating personal universe The letters have been thoroughly annotated by Omar Pound translator and bibliographer of Wyndham Lewis and by A Walton Litz of Princeton University the author of studies of James Joyce Wallace Stevens and other modern writers The book includes a biographical appendix with particular emphasis on lesser known people mentioned in the letters some unpublished early poems by Pound transcribed by Dorothy into one of her notebooks family charts one of which shows Pound s ancestral origins numerous unpublished illustrations and an extensive index The Divine and Human Comedy of Andrew M. Greeley Allienne R. Becker,2000-08-30 The volume approaches Greeleys novels by comparing him to the 19th century French writer Honor de Balzac A prolific and popular author Balzac recorded his milieu in tremendous detail created a fictional universe peopled by hundreds of characters and explored the role of Catholicism in his world Because of his training as a sociologist Greeley brings to his novels a thorough knowledge of popular culture and social theory And because of his experience as a Roman Catholic priest he has gained special knowledge of vice virtue and the workings of the Church Like Balzac now a major canonical author Greeley has created a world of numerous fictional persons mapped the details of his culture and explored the place of Catholicism in contemporary life

Criticism of Society in the English Novel Between the Wars Hena Maes-Jelinek,2013-05-22 The main concern of this study is the artist s vision of society its major theme is the relation between the individual and society resulting from the impact of social and political upheavals on individual life By criticism of society I mean the novelist s awareness of the social reality and of the individual s response to it the writers I deal with all proved alive to the changes that were taking place in English society between the two World Wars Though the social attitudes of the inter war years as well as the writers response to them were shaped by lasting and complex influences such as trends in philosophy and science the two Wars stand out as determining factors in the development of the novel the consequences of the First were explored by most writers in the Twenties whereas in the following decade the novelists felt compelled to voice the anxiety aroused by the threat of another conflict and to warn against its possible effects After the First World War many writers felt keenly the social disruption the old standards which were thought to have made this suicidal War possible were distrusted the code of behaviour and the moral values of the older generation were openly criticized for having led to bankruptcy Disparagement of authority increased the individual s sense of isolation his insecurity his disgust or fear Even the search for pleasure so widely satirized in the Twenties was the expression of a cynicism born of despair The ensuing disengagement of the individual from his environment became a major theme in the novel his isolation was at once a cause for resentment and the source of his fierce individualism
