Caribbean Capers and Tropical Tantrums! Carol P. Townsend, 2009-02-01. Formerly and briefly titled Views From A Hill In Tobago, this is a light-hearted and completely true account of a memorable family holiday on the tiny Caribbean island of Tobago. It all started when I was at home waiting for a new cooker to be delivered so rather than twiddle my thumbs or watch some appalling daytime TV show I sat down at the computer and well this is the result. The story of a lifetime at the very centre of international cricket from the most respected TV commentator in the game. Few people understand cricket as well as Richie Benaud. For sixty years as player and commentator he has set the standards for others to follow and has witnessed all the major events in the game. No one else has found such favour with the vast numbers of cricket lovers in both Britain and Australia. A high class attacking batsman and masterful legspin bowler he captained Australia in 28 of his 63 Tests, regaining the Ashes in 1958-59 and taking part in both Laker's match in 1956 and the Tied Test in 1960. His television career which began in 1963 while he was still a Test player has coincided with a period of astonishing change in the way the game is played with the increasing popularity of the shorter formats and in the way it is broadcast with the innovations that began with World Series Cricket. In Over But Not Out Richie Benaud has added extensive new material to his acclaimed Anything but an Autobiography. In order to cover the years since its publication he not only revisits his long and remarkable career but also casts his eye over cricket in the 21st century. He gives his distinctive take on series such as the 2005 and 2009 Ashes and contemplates the future of the game he loves, revealing strong and sometimes surprising opinions on Twenty20, day-night games, technology, referral systems, no-balls, neutral umpires and match-fixing. Packed with stories and illuminated by his characteristic incisiveness and independent-minded good sense Over But Not Out is required reading for all followers of the game. Old Ironsides David Fitz-Enz, 2009-01-15. This is the story of the oldest warship afloat in the world, the venerable frigate USS Constitution, the cornerstone of the nascent American navy created by act of Congress in 1794. Colonel David Fitz-Enz re-creates the world of sail when seven knots an hour was considered blinding speed for a warship. In Old Ironsides Fitz-Enz tells the story of the ship from its construction to the ongoing
