Caribbean Race Relations A Study Of Two Variants:

Caribbean Race Relations H. Hoetink, Caribbean Race Relations Harry Hoetink, 1971 Caribbean race relations: a study of two variants, tr H. Hoetink, Routledge International Handbook of Diversity Studies Steven Vertovec, 2014-11-20 In recent years the concept of diversity has gained a leading place in academic thought business practice and public policy worldwide Although variously used diversity tends to refer to patterns of social difference in terms of certain key categories Today the foremost categories shaping discourses and policies of diversity include race ethnicity religion gender disability sexuality and age further important notions include class language locality lifestyle and legal status The Routledge Handbook of Diversity Studies will examine a range of such concepts along with historical and contemporary cases concerning social and political dynamics surrounding them With contributions by experts spanning Sociology Anthropology Political Science History and Geography the Handbook will be a key resource for students social scientists and professionals It will represent a landmark volume within a field that has become and will continue to be one of the most significant global topics of concern throughout the twenty first century Race, Power and Social Segmentation in Colonial Society Brian L. Moore, 2023-05-03 Race Power and Social Segmentation in Colonial Society 1987 studies Guyanese society after slavery and specifically examines the area of social classes and ethnic groups It also focuses on the theoretical issues in the debate on pluralism versus stratification and provides a detailed interdisciplinary analysis of the process of structural change in a composite colonial society over a significantly long historical period over half a century The Blackwell Dictionary of Historians John Cannon, William Doyle, Jack P. Greene, 1991-01-08 The Blackwell Dictionary of Historians provides an authoritative and readable source book for students and specialists It includes entries on over 450 historians dating from Herodotus to the present Individuals have not necessarily been chosen on account of the importance of their own research but rather for their interest in and influence on the theory and practice of history and the role of the historian In particular the Dictionary includes details of historians most frequently encountered by students following courses on historiography Over 200 specialists have contributed to the Dictionary which is organized alphabetically and includes a comprehensive index Race, Ethnicity and Power Donald G. Baker, 2024-01-01 First published in 1983 Race Ethnicity and Power focuses on contemporary race and ethnic relations in six countries and looks at the historical context by tracing how various forces and factors such as group power capabilities shaped present day ethnic and race relations It describes how English settlers and their descendants used their power historically to control major political economic and social structures and to shape the cultural policies of these countries It explains how ethnic and race relations are best understood by assessing the changing power capabilities of Anglo and non Anglo groups and shows how changes in group relations are the consequence of two major factors modification in group power resources and capabilities and changes in situational factors This book will be of interest to students of sociology political science ethnic studies and international relations

Cuban Studies 49 Alejandro de la Fuente, 2020-03-03 Cuban Studies is the preeminent journal for scholarly work on Cuba. Each volume includes articles in English and Spanish and a large book review section. In publication since 1970 and under Alejandro de la Fuente's editorial leadership since 2013, this interdisciplinary journal covers all aspects of Cuban history, politics, culture, diaspora, and more. Issue 52 contains three dossiers: two on urban Habana and one on understandings of the Cuban Revolution in 1960s Latin America.

Mainstream and Margins Peter I. Rose, 1983-02-05 This volume of commentaries on racial and ethnic relations is a sociological assessment of a changing society and a personal statement about many of the most pressing racial issues since the 1954 Brown Supreme court decision. From the perspective of humanistic sociology, Peter Rose shows that sociology need not be a cold, artless science and argues that sociological enterprise should treat future as well as past and present issues.

The Black Man in Slavery and Freedom in Colonial Brazil A. J. R. Russell-Wood, 1982-09-30

Historic Cities of the Americas David F. Marley, 2005-09-12 With rare maps, prints, and photographs, this unique volume explores the dramatic history of the Americas through the birth and development of the hemisphere's great cities. Written by award-winning author David F. Marley, Historic Cities of the Americas covers the hard-to-find information of these cities' earliest years, including the unique aspects of each region's economy and demography, such as the growth of local mining, trade, or industry. The chronological layout, aided by the numerous maps and photographs, reveals the exceptional changes, relocations, destruction, and transformations these cities endured to become the metropolises they are today. Historic Cities of the Americas provides over 70 extensively detailed entries covering the foundation and evolution of the most significant urban areas in the western hemisphere. Critically researched, this work offers a rare look into the times prior to Christopher Columbus' arrival in 1492 and explores the common difficulties overcome by these European-conquered or founded cities as they flourished into some of the most influential locations in the world.

The Two Variants in Caribbean Race Relations H. Hoetink, 1967 Shortened English translation of the Dutch language social psychology study of intergroup relations in the Caribbean area, entitled de gespleten samenleving in het caribisch gebied, covers historical aspects of the racial segmentation of the population of the area, referring in particular to relations between whites of European origin and Black people, and includes cultural factors, tradition, social status, etc. Bibliography, pp. 191 to 197 and references.

Leading Issues in African-American Studies Nikongo Ba-Nikongo, 1997 African American Studies remains one of the more controversial disciplines in the courses of academic pursuit today. In part, much of the controversy emanates from an inability of practitioners to agree upon any rigid definition of just what constitutes and just what is encompassed within the field At least there is some agreement that its achievement of institutional acceptance with separate programs departments and granting of advanced degrees warrants its treatment as a legitimate field of pursuit in and of itself but indeed this is where the agreement ends On a range of topics scholars in the field of African American Studies hold decidedly different opinions What ought we to include as African American Studies Is Afrocentricity a figment of the imagination or sound scientific enquiry And what place if any does race and racism continue to play in the life changes of African Americans Bi racialism underclassness intra community crime and Afro Jewish relations are also prominent subjects of consideration In Leading Issues in African American Studies BaNikongo has brought together scholars from every associated field of African American Studies and offers a range of perspective on a myriad of topics The text presents differing viewpoints on political social economic cultural and legal issues and succeeds in addressing every major contemporary area of debate in African American academic circles
