Carl Goes Shopping:

Carl Goes Shopping Alexandra Day, 1989-10-01 Carl Goes Shopping is a beautifully illustrated children's book in the Carl series from author/artist Alexandra Day featuring everyone's favorite babysitting Rottweiler. When Carl is told to mind baby Madeleine at a department store, the faithful canine and his little friend do some mischievous exploring. From the toy aisles and the clothing racks and home decor, the duo make the store their own little adventure land. Carl Goes Shopping 40th Anniversary Edition Alexandra Day, 2025-04 In Carl Goes Shopping, Carl minds baby Madeleine at a department store where they embark on mischievous explorations through the toy aisles, clothing racks, and home decor sections, turning the store into their own adventure land. Vocke, 2007 Migrant farm laborers are often called America's invisible people a term that tragically is just as applicable to their children. Because their lives are transitory and their English skills often limited, our opportunities to have a lasting impact on their literacy education are far too brief. But that makes these children no less deserving of our full commitment. In Where Do I Go from Here, Karen Vocke describes how to make the most of each day, creating an educational experience that will serve all children long after they leave our classrooms. Always mindful of state standards and assessment requirements, Vocke demonstrates how to modify the curriculum and adapt strategies to facilitate English language acquisition and content area knowledge. BOOK JACKET

Madeleine's World Brian Hall, 2000-02. This book is a biography of Brian Hall's daughter, Madeleine. It begins with her birth and ends on her 3rd birthday. Along the way, it describes the transition from infant solipsism to toddler self-absorption to a small person's sociability. It records monumental achievements and devastating disillusionments. The biography is a map of an expanding world in which dragons still roam, but terra incognita is pushed inexorably back. Although this is the record of an individual life, anyone interested in children will find themselves swept up in this fundamental and universal voyage as Hall charts the rising arc of a new consciousness.
