Years's Transactions of the Carmarthenshire Antiquarian Society and Field Club ... Carmarthenshire Antiquarian Society and Field Club,1910 The Edge of Cymru Julie Brominicks,2023-03-06 In the course of a year Julie Brominicks walked around the edge of Wales having left her job in environmental education at the Centre for Alternative Technology in Machynlleth As an English incomer and a Welsh learner with a long association with the country she was interested in what Wales meant and how she did or didn't fit in to it The result is a fascinating alternative travelogue which merges topography history environmentalism and observation of nature to produce the long view of Wales discovering the roots of the present in the past sometimes the distant past Brominicks observations of the places and people she discovers around Wales are lively and well written although this is her journey in many senses of that word the narrative is at least as interested in who she meets and what she sees especially of ordinary life She brings the everyday to life in thought provoking ways her book a new way of looking at the place where we live and the people with whom we live our lives knowingly and unknowingly Her writing is lyrical studded with engaging and striking coinages and images which take the reader along the journey with her both entertained and informed The Edge of Cymru is a refreshingly new way of looking at place identity memory and belonging especially through an environmental lens It rewards the reader whether they are interested in Wales specifically or the world generally Bursts with beautiful descriptive prose which picks up the minutia of each moment Brominicks skilfully examines broad social environmental political economic and even geological changes without the book feeling dry as accessible as a novel and would make a great holiday read as much as a bedside book Countryfile Magazine Census of England & Wales, 1921 ...: Carmarthen. 1924 Great Britain.
