Performing Queer Modernism Penny Farfan, 2017-07-12 Focusing on some of the best known and most visible stage plays and dance performances of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Penny Farfan's interdisciplinary study demonstrates that queer performance was integral to and productive of modernism that queer modernist performance played a key role in the historical emergence of modern sexual identities and that it anticipated and was in a sense foundational to the insights of contemporary queer modernist studies Chapters on works from Vaslav Nijinsky's Afternoon of a Faun to No 1 Coward's Private Lives highlight manifestations of and suggest ways of reading queer modernist performance Together these case studies clarify aspects of both the queer and the modernist and how their co-productive intersection was articulated in and through performance on the late nineteenth and early twentieth century stage Performing Queer Modernism thus contributes to an expanded understanding of modernism across a range of performance genres the central role of performance within modernism more generally and the integral relation between performance history and the history of sexuality It also contributes to the ongoing transformation of the field of modernist studies in which drama and performance remain under represented and to revisionist historiographies that approach modernist performance through feminist and queer critical perspectives and interdisciplinary frameworks and that consider how formally innovative as well as more conventional works collectively engaged with modernity at once reflecting and contributing to historical change in the domains of gender and sexuality

Nordic Literature Steven P. Sondrup, Mark B. Sandberg, Thomas A. DuBois, Dan Ringgaard, 2017-12-15 Nordic Literature A comparative history is a multi volume comparative analysis of the literature of the Nordic region Bringing together the literature of Finland continental Scandinavia Sweden Norway Denmark and S pmi and the insular region Iceland Greenland and the Faroe Islands each volume of this three volume project adopts a new frame through which one can recognize and analyze significant clusters of literary practice This first volume Spatial nodes devotes its attention to the changing literary figurations of space by Nordic writers from medieval to contemporary times Organized around the depiction of various scapes and spatial practices at home and abroad this approach to Nordic literature stretches existing notions of temporally linear nationally centered literary history and allows questions of internal regional similarities and differences to emerge more strongly The productive historical contingency of the North as a literary space becomes clear in this close analysis of its literary texts and practices

Morning, Noon, and Night Arnold Weinstein, 2011-02-15 From Homer and Shakespeare to Toni Morrison and Jonathan Safran Foer major works of literature have a great deal to teach us about two of life s most significant stages growing up and growing old Distinguished scholar Arnold Weinstein s provocative and engaging new book Morning Noon and Night explores classic writing s insights into coming of age and surrendering to time and considers the impact of these revelations upon our lives With wisdom humor and moving personal observations Weinstein leads us to look deep inside ourselves and these great books to see how we can use art as both mirror and guide He offers incisive readings of seminal novels about childhood Huck Finn s empathy for the runaway slave Jim illuminates a child s moral education Catherine and Heathcliff s struggle with obsessive passion in Wuthering Heights is hauntingly familiar to many young lovers Dickens s Pip in Great Expectations must grapple with a world that wishes him harm and in Marjane Satrapi s autobiographical Persepolis little Marjane faces a different kind of struggle growing into adolescence as her country moves through the pain of the Iranian Revolution In turn great writers also ponder the lessons learned in life s twilight years both King Lear and Willy Loman suffer as their patriarchal authority collapses and death creeps up Brecht s Mother Courage displays the inspiring indomitability of an aging woman who has borne every possible blow but is still standing still moving And older love can sometimes be funny Rip Van Winkle conveniently sleeps right through his marriage and sometimes tragic as J M Coetzee s David Lurie learns the hard way in Disgrace Tapping into the hearts and minds of memorable characters from Sophocles Oedipus to Artie in Art Spiegelman s Maus Morning Noon and Night makes an eloquent and powerful case for the role of great literature as a knowing window into our lives and times Its intelligence passion and genuine appreciation for the written word remind us just how crucial books are to the business of being human
