Ordinary Life and Holiness, Volume 1 Ernst Burkhardt, 2018-01-17 On May 17 1992 Pope John Paul II beatified Josemaria Escriva de Balaguer Ten years later on October 6 2002 he was proclaimed a saint He was chosen by God affirmed the Roman pontiff to announce the universal call to holiness and to indicate that daily life common activities are a path of sanctification It could be said that he was the Saint of the Ordinary On September 14 2005 Pope Benedict XVI blessed a statue of St Josemaria placed on the walls of St Peter's Basilica with the inscription from Sacred Scripture that summarizes his mission of serving the Church Et ego si exaltatus fuero a terra omnes traham ad meipsum And I when I am lifted up from the earth will draw all men to myself John 12:32 St Josemaria understood that with these words Our Lord was telling us if you put me at the heart of all earthly activities by fulfilling the duty of each moment and bear witness to me in what seems big and in what seems small then omnia traham ad meipsum My kingdom among you will become a reality Notes from a meditation preached on October 10 1963 The present work in three volumes is the first attempt to gather together systematically the whole of St Josemaria's message about the sanctification of professional work and all daily life Volume 1 After presenting the historical theological framework for St Josemaria's teaching and the audience to whom it was directed lay Christians and secular priests this first volume delineates the purpose of the Christian life This spiritual theology book has three central themes giving glory to God by seeking to be contemplatives in daily life seeking the reign of Christ by putting him at the summit of all human activities and cooperating with the Holy Spirit in building up the Church by personal sanctification and apostolate

False Dawn Lee Penn, 2004 The interfaith movement which began with the 1893 World's Parliament of Religions in Chicago has grown worldwide Although this movement has been largely unknown to the public it now provides a spiritual face for globalization the economic and political forces leading us all from nationalism to One World The most ambitious organization in today's interfaith movement is the United Religions Initiative URI founded by William Swing the Episcopal Bishop of California Investigative reporter Lee Penn a Catholic ex-Marxist exhaustively documents the history and beliefs of the URI and its New Age and globalist allies the vested interests that support these movements and the direction they appear to be taking The interfaith movement is no longer merely the province of a coterie of little heeded religious idealists with grandiose visions The URI's proponents have ranged from billionaire George Soros to President George W. Bush from the far right Rev. Sun Myung Moon to the liberal Catholic theologian Hans Kung and from the Dalai Lama to the leaders of government approved Protestant churches in the People's Republic of China The interfaith movement including the URI is being promoted by globalist and New Age reformers who favor erosion of national sovereignty marginalization of traditional religions establishment of global governance and creation of a new Earth based global spirituality in effect a one world religion Therefore the URI and the interfaith movement are poised to become the spiritual foundation of the New World Order the new civilization now proposed by Mikhail Gorbachev the last leader of the Soviet Union In The Reign of Quantity and the Signs of the Times French metaphysician Ren Gu non spoke of the anti tradition the forces of materialism and secular humanism finally giving way to the counter tradition the satanic inversion of true spirituality leading to the regime of Antichrist The anti tradition weakens and dissolves traditional spiritualities after which the counter tradition sets up a counterfeit in their place Since Gu non s time as is well known anti traditional forces have greatly advanced worldwide It is less well known that counter traditional movements have also made great strides and now stand closer to the centers of global political and religious power than ever before The counter tradition is making inroads on the political and cultural Right as much as it is doing on the Left False Dawn painstakingly documents these trends and speculates on their future development In so doing the author takes investigative reporting to the threshold of prophecy and gives us a stunningly plausible picture of the global religious landscape of the 21st century This extraordinary project is the literary equivalent of turning over a flat rock There is much to be seen and learned here all of it unsettling disquieting occasionally downright scary William Murchison Radford Distinguished Professor Baylor University When a bishop of a Christian church happily worships alongside a Wiccan invoking other gods something has gone horribly wrong In False Dawn Lee Penn has produced a comprehensive and critical history of the United Religions Initiative This book sounds a clear warning Anyone who makes theological truth subservient to utopianism denigrates all religions Douglas LeBlanc Editor GetReligion.org

Holiness Through Work Fernando Ocariz,2020-02-18 Work is a fundamental element of human life that claims much of our time Consider Jesus 30 years as a carpenter under the tutelage of St Joseph Our natural tendency can be to often curse or shirk its presence in life instead of recognizing its true value as a source of personal development improvement of society and means of holiness and apostolate The core part of the book is a dialogue between numerous scholars and Msgr Fernando Oc riz about the message of St Josemar a Escriv one of the great teachers of modern spirituality who has taught us to sanctify work to sanctify oneself at work and to sanctify others through work Use these words to reflect on the meaning of work in your own life and to learn how to change your perception of work as a burden into work as a source of sanctification

Working and Caring for Creation Emilio Chuvieco,2026-02-05 This book presents an innovative approach that connects ecotheology and theology of work It expands on the concept of Christian materialism proposed by Saint Josemar a Escriv 1902 1975 to overcome dualisms that ignore the spiritual value of material realities The author broadens Escriv s vision of sanctifying work and sanctifying oneself in work and sanctifying others through work to the sanctification of the natural world Escriv s vocational reading of Genesis 2 15 grounds the relevance of work for finding God in everyday realities but also establishes a clear connection between work and creation care Following this notion the book looks to extend Escriv s ideas on the sanctification of work analogically to the sanctification of the natural world It constructs a theological framework that proposes an earthcaring theology based on the ideas of environmental moral empathy ecological conversion and priest of creation An additional Trinitarian framework is developed along these lines that proposes a new type of work that is co creative co redemptive and co sanctifying following the ad extra attributes of the Father the Son and the Holy Spirit in their providential care for creation The volume is particularly relevant to scholars of theology with an interest in both work and the environment Studia et Documenta, vol. 8(2014) Federico M.
