Complexity In Maurice Blanchot's Fiction:

Complexity in Maurice Blanchot's Fiction Deborah M. Hess, 1999 Culture relates to the literary text through metaphors expressing indeterminism subjectivity multivalence opposition recursion loops spirals order and disorder and emergence

The Delirium of Praise Eleanor Kaufman, 2003-05-01 The laudatory essay in which one author praises the work of another is frequently characterized as an unimportant even uncritical mode of writing But as Eleanor Kaufman argues in The Delirium of Praise this mode of exchange is serious and substantial enough to merit scholarly attention By not conforming to standard practices of critical discourse laudatory essays give new status to supposedly inferior forms of communication and states of being including chatter silence sickness imbalance and absence of work and emphasize affective states or emotions such as joy friendship and longing The Delirium of Praise examines a group of five twentieth century French intellectuals Georges Bataille Maurice Blanchot Michel Foucault Gilles Deleuze and Pierre Klossowski and their laudatory essays about each other Structured as a circular series of exchanges the book examines pairings of two thinkers with respect to a given theme The exchange between Bataille and Blanchot takes up the themes of chatter and silence with regard to the novelist Louis Ren des For ts the Blanchot Foucault exchange explores friendship and impersonality through the lens of Jacques Derrida the Foucault Deleuze exchange considers absence of work d soeuvrement and the obscure French philosopher Jacques Martin the Deleuze Klossowski exchange revolves around the question of the sick body and the person of Nietzsche and the final exchange between Klossowski and Bataille focuses on imbalanced economies and the writings of the Marquis de Sade Where the praise is most excessive approaching delirium Kaufman locates a powerful thought energy that pushes the laudatory essay to its limits In her conclusion she presents this unique mode of thought exchange as a form of intellectual hospitality Kaufman uncovers a suspension of subjectivity of personality even of place and time that is both articulated in the laudatory essays and enacted by them Her examination of this neglected mode as practiced by five important French thinkers offers a unique perspective on twentieth century intellectual history

French VII Bibliography, 1999 Emancipatory Thinking Elaine Stavro, 2018-05-11 Most scholars have focused on The Second Sex and Simone de Beauvoir's fiction concentrating on gender issues but ignoring her broader emancipatory vision Though Beauvoir's political thinking is not as closely studied as her feminist works it underpinned her activism and helped her navigate the dilemmas raised by revolutionary thought in the postwar period In Emancipatory Thinking Elaine Stavro brings together Beauvoir's philosophy and her political interventions to produce complex ideas on emancipation Drawing from a range of work including novels essays autobiographical writings and philosophic texts Stavro explains that for Beauvoir freedom is a movement that requires both personal and collective transformation Freedom is not guaranteed by world historical systems material structures wilful action or discursive practices but requires engaged subjects who are able to take creative risks as well as synchronize with existing forces to work towards collective change Beauvoir Stavro asserts resisted the trend of anti humanism that has dominated French thinking since the 1960s and also managed to avoid the pitfalls of voluntarism and individualism In fact Stavro argues Beauvoir appreciated the impact of material socio economic institutional forces without forgoing the capacity to initiate Applying Beauvoir s existential insights and understanding of embodied and situated subjectivity to recent debates within gender literary sociological cultural and political studies Emancipatory Thinking provides a lens to explore the current political and theoretical landscape The Articulation of Science in the Neo-Victorian Novel Daniel Candel Bormann,2002 Beginning with an introduction to Ansgar N nning s systematization of the historical novel Daniel Candel Bormann s study offers a poetics of science in the contemporary historical and more specifically neo Victorian novel Politics and Literature Deborah M. Hess,1999 The role of politics in literary creation and interpretation is discussed for the French intellectual tradition and the critical period in France from 1931 to 1948 Maurice Blanchot s early fiction is analyzed as a symbolic expression of its sociopolitical context He portrays the plight of the Jewish people and of the French nation in his fiction published between 1936 and 1949 A recent storm of critical reaction raises questions about the rights and limits of the literary critic and about moral and personal aspects of the author text and reading process Politics and Literature offers a model for critical interpretation that takes into account complexity process and the sociopolitical context of the literary text The War Complex Marianna Torgovnick,2008-06 Showing how different events from World War II became prominent in American cultural memory while others went forgotten or remain hidden in plain sight the author moves deftly from war films and historical works to television specials and popular magazines to define the image and influence of the war Phoebe ,2002 Review of Contemporary Fiction ,1988 New Physics and the Modern French Novel Maureen DiLonardo Troiano,1995 This study argues that both science and literature operate out of comparable impulses in their consideration of the nature of truth and the perception of reality It focuses on central scientific paradigms as they appear in the aesthetics of the French new novel both to contrast the Newtonian mechanistic deterministic world view characteristic of much of nineteenth century thought with the dominant interest of the twentieth century in indeterminacy illogic paradox and entropy It describes the new novel as a subjective probabilistic entity a new Gestalt ontological event in which the re presentation of reality becomes a nonabsolute time space experience occurring simultaneously with the act of reading American Book Publishing Record ,2006 Modernist Trends in Twentieth-century Polish Fiction Stanisław Eile,1996 The New York Times Book Review ,1989 Presents extended reviews of noteworthy books short reviews essays and articles on topics and trends in publishing literature culture and the arts Includes lists of best sellers hardcover and paperback Yale French Studies ,1980 Locus--space, Landscape, Decor in Modern French Fiction ,1979 Contemporary Authors New Revision Series Tracey Watson,2005-06 In response to the escalating need for up to date information on writers Contemporary Authors R New
