Complex Entanglements Art Globalisation And Cultural Difference:

Complex Entanglements Nikos Papastergiadis, 2003 Papers from a the conference Globalisation Art Cultural Difference on the edge of change 2001 Sydney contributions by Langton and Perkins on Aboriginal art annotated separately Cultures and / of Globalization Barrie Axford, Richard Huggins, 2011-07-12 This book explores the ways in which study of culture as the realm of meaning and identity can inform current debates about globalization and thus afford greater understanding of emergent globalities By drawing on a range of disciplinary and sub disciplinary expertise from across the social sciences and also promoting areas of cross disciplinary research the book contributes to the development of theory on globalization and also provides some significant illustrations of cultural globalization in practice through attention to novel empirical sites and issues These include eminently cultural realms such as music film and architecture and those that are invested with a strong cultural component such as migration and education Contributions emphasise the soft features of globalization and globality and most look to marry theoretical abstraction with everyday aspects of global processes focusing on those routine and sometimes conscious connections and accommodations that make up daily life in a globalized world In doing so the book itself can be seen as a contribution to critical and multidimensional studies of globalization and as engaging in a form of global practice

The Elgar Companion to the Arts and Global Multiculturalism Sneja Gunew, Nikos

Papastergiadis, Fazal Rizvi, Paula Muraca, 2025-04-09 This Companion examines the evolution of multiculturalism as a political philosophy public policy and cultural practice Demonstrating the key role of artists activists and migrants in the inception of multiculturalism it explores how to renew the concept for the modern world extending the possibilities of social belonging and communal relations

Cultures and Globalization Helmut K Anheier, Yudhishtir Raj Isar, 2010-01-21 In the globalization game there are no absolute winners and losers Neither homogenisation nor diversity can capture its contradictory movement and character The essays and papers collected here offer from a variety of perspectives a rich exploration of creativity and innovation cultural expressions and globalization This volume of essays in all their diversity of contents and theoretical perspectives demonstrates the rich value of this paradoxical oxymoronic approach Stuart Hall Emeritus Professor of Sociology at the Open University Volume 3 of the Cultures Globalization series Creativity and Innovations explores the interactions between globalization and the forms of cultural expression that are their basic resource Bringing together over 25 high profile authors from around the world this volume addresses such questions as What impacts does globalization have on cultural creativity and innovation How is the evolving world map of creativity related to the drivers and patterns of globalization What are the relationships between creative acts clusters genres or institutions and cultural diversity The volume is an indispensable reference tool for all scholars and students of contemporary arts and culture

Contemporary Southeast Asian Performance Matthew Isaac Cohen, Laura Noszlopy, 2010-10-12 Mutual borrowing fluid transactions and transformations of performances and performers have a long and enduring history in Southeast Asia

but this trend has been heightened and made more vivid in the contemporary period. The omnipresence of global communications has provoked and inspired yet more novel experiments and collaborations between cosmopolitan artists and globally oriented performers. This volume offers vital insights into recent developments in Southeast Asian performance. It demonstrates the ways in which contemporary artists and performers are increasingly working betwixt the traditional boundaries of the nation and discourses of identity. The essays collected here are testament to ongoing conversations and relations among scholars, practitioners and scholar practitioners in Southeast Asia and around the world.

Mediating Multiculturalism Daniella Trimboli, 2020-08-04 Using digital storytelling a new media genre that began in California in the late 1990s and that proliferated across the West in the 2000s as a site of analysis this book asks What is done in the name of the everyday. Like everyday multiculturalism digital storytelling is promoted as an accessible enabling and ordinary phenomenon that represents cultural experience more accurately than official sites. As such the genre frequently houses stories of migration, community and ethnic and racial differences. In turn digital story collections often act as digital monuments or repositories of multiculturalism giving a digital life to narratives of migration, cultural difference and national belonging. This is evidenced in one of the world's largest public collections of digital stories found in the Australian Centre for the Moving Image (ACMI) and referenced throughout this book. Using examples from this collection and pointing to comparable ones in the UK and North America this book investigates how notions of the everyday become a channel through which certain long standing discourses of race get redeployed in multicultural nations. What can digital storytelling teach us about the status and future of multiculturalism in these societies. Can digital storytelling re-mediate multiculturalism in new progressive ways.

Creative Frictions Cecelia Cmielewski, 2021-08-17 Creative Frictions explores the relationship between visionary aspects of practice and policy. Despite over 30 years of arts and cultural policy attention there remains a widespread view among the general public and artists alike that creative production does not reflect Australia's culturally diverse population. Australia's increasingly complex society can no longer be confined to essentialised or traditional definitions of ethnic communities. While this diversity and its emerging complexity can be celebrated as a source of creativity and innovation it can also give rise to social, political and creative challenges. A key challenge that remains for the arts sector is its ability to support the creative expression of cultural difference. One measure of inclusive creative production is to look at the participation of artists of non-English speaking backgrounds (NESBs) a problematic term discussed in the book. There are half as many NESB artists compared to those of other professions participating in the workforce and while underrepresentation is an issue for management in the arts sector the question of representation also benefits from being understood more broadly beyond the narrow sense of multiculturalism as a tool to manage cultural difference. This book explores the crucial role of creative leaders and how they work with the mainstream while maintaining their creative integrity and independence to generate a virtuous circle of change. Creative Frictions argues that it is the NESB artists who lead change in the arts sector and that creative and organisational leadership working in partnership make creative use of friction and develop the necessary trust to generate the traction for a supportive multicultural arts milieu

Belonging and Globalisation Kamal Boullata, 2008 A collection of important contributions to the global discussion of place and identity from leading artists and cultural critics

Jakarta Megalopolis Arjan van Helmond, Stani Michiels, 2007 This book focuses on two projects based in the city of Jakarta by artist architect Stani Michiels and artist Arjan van Helmond From their different lines of approach they try to get a handle on Jakarta's housing culture the experience of private as opposed to public space and the consequences of city migration as well as the city's infrastructure its increasing density and the coherence of the city as a whole Many megalopolises in developing countries undergo explosive growth with the cultural social political and economic complexity developing at an unprecedented rate This phenomenon is being given more and more attention within the world of architecture and art

Art Nexus, 2004 Australian and New Zealand Journal of Art, 2004 Art and Polemic in Pakistan Virginia Whiles, 2010-07-30 This book has originality and insight and throws fresh light on an important aspect of the art world By letting the categories of artistic production nationalist identity and subterfuge speak to inform and challenge one another Virginia Whiles has created a rich text which gives both historical depth and contemporary significance on questions of art commodification and identity
