Cruelty Games Wendy Robertson,1997 A New Manual of Method Alfred Hezekiah Garlick,1898 The Ultimatum of Pleasure Arsen Dallakyan,Karlen Dallakyan,2017-07-11 This book is dedicated to the research of the pleasure phenomenon as the most important factor in individual and socio cultural development In a society of mass consumption pleasure having turned into a commodity and a means of manipulation defines civilizational development The authors theorize that the pursuit of pleasure can destroy one s self culture and environment The recent rapid technological expansion has turned pleasure into a societal challenge This study emphasizes the necessity of intrinsic transformation of marketing in the 21st Century which would shift the focus from seeking pleasure to controlling desires in a way that would benefit self society and the world A few notes on cruelty to animals; on the inadequacy of penal law; or geneal hospitals for animals, etc Ralph FLETCHER (Surgeon.),1846 A few notes on cruelty to animals; on the inadequacy of penal law, on general hospitals for animals Ralph Fletcher,1846 The Oxford Handbook Sport and Spectacle in the Ancient World Alison Futrell,Thomas F. Scanlon,2021-09-09 Sport and spectacle in the ancient world has become a vital area of broad new exploration over the last few decades This Handbook brings together the latest research on Greek and Roman manifestations of these pastimes to explore current approaches and open exciting new avenues of inquiry It discusses historical perspectives contest forms contest related texts civic and social aspects and use and meaning of the individual body Greek and Roman topics are interwoven to simulate contest like tensions and complementarities juxtaposing for example violence in Greek athletics and Roman gladiatorial events Greek and Roman chariot events architectural frameworks for contests and games in the two cultures and contrasting views of religion bodily regimens and judicial classification related to both cultures It examines the social contexts of games namely the evolution of sport and spectacle across cultural and political boundaries and how games are adapted to multiple contexts and multiple purposes reinforcing social hierarchies performing shared values and playing out deep cultural tensions The volume also considers other directing forces in the ancient Mediterranean such as Bronze Age Egypt and the Near East Etruria and early Christianity It addresses important themes common to both antiquity and modern society such as issues of class gender and health as well as the popular culture of the modern Olympics and gladiators in cinema With innovative perspectives from authoratative scholars on a wide range of topics this Handbook will appeal to both students and researchers interested in ancient history literature sports and games The New Breed Kate Darling,2021-04-20 For readers of The Second Machine Age or The Soul of an Octopus a bold exciting exploration of how building diverse kinds of relationships with robots inspired by how we interact with animals could be the key to making our future with robot technology work There has been a lot of ink devoted to discussions of how robots will replace us and take our jobs But MIT Media Lab researcher and technology policy expert Kate Darling argues just the opposite suggesting that treating robots with a bit of humanity more like the way we treat animals will actually serve us better From a social legal and ethical perspective she shows that our current ways of thinking don't leave room for the robot technology that is soon to become part of our everyday routines Robots are likely to supplement rather than replace our own skills and relationships So if we consider our history of incorporating animals into our work transportation military and even families we actually have a solid basis for how to contend with this future A deeply original analysis of our technological future and the ethical dilemmas that await us The New Breed explains how the treatment of machines can reveal a new understanding of our own history our own systems and how we relate not just to nonhumans but also to one another
