Cry For Myth:

The Cry for Myth Rollo May, 1991-05 Rollo May respected therapist and bestselling author of Love and Will discusses the relationships between myths and the subconscious showing how myths can provide meaning and structure for those who seek direction in a confused world Here are case studies in which myths have helped Dr May's patients make sense out of an often senseless world University of Washington Publications in Anthropology University of Washington, 1930 The Humanitarian Review, 1910 Once and Future Myths Phil Cousineau, 2001-08 A longtime student and colleague of Joseph Campbell attests to the timelessness of myth as he explores classic and modern day versions including travel mentors cities baseball and vampires Photos illustrations Life and Loss Linda Goldman, 2013-11-20 Many clinicians recognize that denying or ignoring grief issues in children leaves them feeling alone and that acknowledging loss is crucial part of a child's healthy development Really dealing with loss in productive ways however is sometimes easier said than done For decades Life and Loss has been the book clinicians have relied on for a full and nuanced presentation of the many issues with which grieving children grapple as well as an honest exploration of the interrelationship between unresolved grief educational success and responsible citizenry The third edition of Life and Loss brings this exploration firmly into the twenty first century and makes a convincing case that children's grief is no longer restricted only to loss identified children Children's grief is now endemic it is global Life and Loss is not just the book clinicians need to understand grief in the twenty first century it's the book they need to work with it in constructive ways Understanding Women Romy Miller, 2017-11-24 Taking an in your face approach Miller promises to turn readers into dating machines transforming themselves from losers to lovers in no time flat The Nurture Revolution Greer Kirshenbaum, PhD, 2023-06-20 The latest research in neuroscience and parenting come together in this groundbreaking book which brings to light new realizations about the power of nurture for our children's mental and physical health outcomes Greer Kirshenbaum PhD is a neuroscientist doula and parent Her work began with the goal of developing new treatments for poor mental health she dreamed of creating a new medication to address conditions like anxiety depression addiction and chronic stress Over time she realized that science had already uncovered a powerful medicine for alleviating mental health struggles but the answer wasn't a pill It was a preventative approach when babies receive nurturing care in the first three years of life it builds strong resilient brains brains that are less susceptible to poor mental health How can parents best set their children up for success In this revelatory book Dr Kirshenbaum makes plain that nurture is a preventative medicine against mental health issues She challenges the idea that the way to cultivate independence is through letting babies cry it out or sleep alone instead the way to raise a confident securely attached child is to lean in to nurture to hold your infant as much as you want support their emotions engage in back and forth conversations be present and compassionate when your baby is stressed and share sleep Research has proven that nurturing experiences transform lives Nurturing is a gift of resilience and health parents can give the next generation
