David, the Shepherd Boy George Frederick Root, 1910      The Blue Box M.M. Wagner, 2021-07-26 Life is fragile and when it changes without warning people are changed as well sometimes irreparably When circumstances outside our control reshape our lives who we are and who we have the capacity to become are put to the test With clarity and knowledge a deeper understanding can be born This is the story of two women living in times and circumstances that couldn't be more dissimilar How does a woman struggling to stay alive in Nazi occupied Poland have anything in common with a ditzy housewife living in modern day affluence and yet they are intimately connected in pain and loss and blood The Blue Box is a story of grief solitude and familial bonds but more importantly it's a story about the transformative power of forgiveness

Denise Levertov Audrey T. Rodgers, 1993 Through careful analysis of Levertov's social verse she demonstrates that there is a consistency and pattern in what the artist herself has termed the poems of engagement Denise Levertov began her career in England as a lyric poet in the Romantic mode but even then was touched by the reductive nature of war revealed in her first published poem Listening to Distant Guns During the mid 1960s Levertov's social conscience notably her strong antiwar sentiment was reawakened by the Vietnam War This reawakening resulted in several volumes of poetry that mirrored her concerns with the war and political activism at home and her perplexity at the nature of human beings often great and compassionate but at times cruel and insensitive There exists a common thread in Levertov's pilgrimage from her beginning as a lyric poet to her status as an artist definitively in the world she has always responded to everything within the compass of her experience
