Crystal Chain Letters:

The Crystal Chain Letters Iain Boyd Whyte, Bruno Taut, 1985-01 The Crystal Chain Die gläserne Kette was a utopian correspondence initiated by Bruno Taut in 1919-1920 in which a small group of like-minded architects and artists exchanged ideas on what form the architecture of the future should take. Unfettered by the demands of practicability, the members of the group described their visions of an ideal society and of a beneficent architecture in a series of dazzling, fantastic letters and drawings. Although the letters are referred to in almost every survey of twentieth-century architecture, this is the first book to offer in English the complete texts of all the known Crystal Chain letters, including some which have never been published in German. The letters are accompanied by illustrations, an introductory essay, and explanatory notes. The Crystal Chain letters document the crisis of modernism that afflicted German architectural theory in the years immediately following the First World War. The trauma of the war and the subsequent social unrest led the radical architects to reject the materialism and positivism that had characterized the Kaiserreich. The result was an ideological and aesthetic vacuum, and the search for suitable alternatives provided the basis for the correspondence. After a year of intense theoretical speculation, several of the links in the chain, including Bruno and Max Taut, Walter Gropius, Hans and Wassili Luckhardt, and Hans Scharoun, emerged as leading advocates and practitioners of the new architecture in Germany. Iain Boyd Whyte is an English architectural historian. He is the author of several books, including Bruno Taut and the Architecture of Activism and the translator of Industriekultur by Peter Behrens and the AEG. MIT Press, 1984.

Utopia David Ayers, Benedikt Hjärtarson, Tomi Huttunen, Harri Veivo, 2015-12-14 Utopian hope and dystopian despair are characteristic features of modernism and the avant-garde. Readings of the avant-garde have frequently sought to identify utopian moments coded in its works and activities as optimistic signs of a possible future social life or as the attempt to preserve hope against the closure of an emergent dystopian present. The fourth volume of the EAM series European Avant-Garde and Modernism Studies casts light on the history, theory, and actuality of the utopian and dystopian strands which run through European modernism and the avant-garde from the late 19th to the 21st century. The book's varied and carefully selected contributions, written by experts from around 20 countries, seek to answer such questions as: how have modernism and the avant-garde responded to historical circumstance in mapping the form of possible futures for humanity? how have avant-garde and modernist works presented ideals of living as alternatives to the present? how have avant-gardists acted with or against the state to remodel human life or to resist the instrumental reduction of life by administration and industrialisation?

Architecture after God Kyle Dugdale, 2022-12-19 Architecture after God A vivid retelling of the biblical story of Babel leads from the contested site of Babylon to the soaring towers of the modern metropolis and sets the bright hopes of early modernism against the shadows of gathering war. Dealing in structural metaphor, utopian aspiration, and geopolitical ambition, Dugdale exposes the inexorable architectural implications of the event described by Nietzsche as the death of God. The Modernities Joseph Masheck, 1993 Joseph Masheck wants to take art historical and modern as a field of lively interrelations as if in random access memory retrieval rather than just second the motion that art history should be nonlinear and he takes the task of art criticism to be theory in practice Thus significant new art is represented in the thirty essays in Modernities besides already classic modern architecture sculpture and photography and contemporary painting by artists Alternating between a comprehensive sense of art history and engagement with the new and unplumbed contemporary arts he considers himself a kind of aesthetic double agent Because Masheck is concerned with the concrete standing of artworks he speculates on how works of art including Marcel Duchamp s ready made relate to other things More general themes range from the origin of the modern sense of form in prehistoric art to the historical underpinnings of expressionism and on to latter day graffiti culture Experimental Houses Nicolas Pople, 2000 The book opens with a historical review of experimental houses over the last 500 years with a particular focus on the twentieth century covering the work of Mies van der Rohe Le Corbusier Frank Lloyd Wright and others It also outlines some of the key social political and economic driving forces behind the development of houses in the twentieth century Projects covered in the rest of the book are organized by type shelter and mobile homes prefabricated houses ecological houses cluster houses infill houses conversions and re use and one offs Each chapter opens with an essay outlining the theme Outstanding examples from all over the world are then examined in depth with analytical commentary accompanied by sections plans and photographs BOOK JACKET Title
