Thinking in Film Mieke Bal, 2013-12-05 What is a moving image and how does it move us In Thinking in Film celebrated theorist Mieke Bal engages in an exploration part dialogue part voyage with the video installations of Finnish artist Eija Liisa Ahtila to understand movement as artistic practice and as affect Through fifteen years of Ahtila's practice including such seminal works as The Annunciation Where Is Where and The House Bal searches for the places where theoretical and artistic practices intersect to create radical spaces in which genuinely democratic acts are performed Bringing together different understandings of figure from form to character Bal examines the syntax of the exhibition and its ability to bring together installations the work itself the physical and ontological thresholds of the installation space and the use of narrative and genre The double meaning of movement in Bal's unique thought catalyses an understanding of video installation work as inherently plural heterogenous and possessed of revolutionary political potential The video image as an art form illuminates the question of what an image is and the installation binds viewers to their own interactions with the space In this context Bal argues that the intersection between movement and space creates an openness to difference and doubt By thinking in art we find ideas not illustrated by but actualized in artworks Bal practices this theory in action to demonstrate how the video installation can move us to think beyond ordinary boundaries and venture into new spaces There is no act more radical than figuring a vision of the other as film allows art to do Thinking in Film is Mieke Bal's incisive innovative best as she opens up the miraculous political potential of the condensed art of the moving image
