CTV-The Network That Means Business Michael Nolan,2001-12 Michael Nolan follows the evolution of CTV from a group of small independent television stations across Canada to the powerful network it is today He chronicles the boardroom struggles within the network as strong personalities clashed over economic and cultural matters CTV-The Network That Means Business Michael Nolan,2001-12 Michael Nolan follows the evolution of CTV from a group of small independent television stations across Canada to the powerful network it is today He chronicles the boardroom struggles within the network as strong personalities clashed over economic and cultural matters Cross-Media Ownership and Democratic Practice in Canada Walter C. Soderlund,Colette Brin,Lydia Miljan,Kai Hildebrandt,2012-09-01 This is the first in depth analysis of major French and English Canadian news companies to show the impact of cross media ownership on the diversity of new content Surprisingly the study lays to rest fears over content convergence of newspaper and television network ownership by Canadian media giants Canwest Global CTVglobemedia and Quebecor Content sharing between newspaper and television properties of these giant companies did not occur This leads the authors to examine why and to assess problems that mass media in Canada will likely face in the coming years particularly as newsrooms strive to adapt to new media and the online environment Policy makers media executives and journalism students and professors will find this study invaluable Sport, Public Broadcasting, and Cultural Citizenship Jay Scherer,David Rowe,2013-08-15 This book examines the political debates over the access to live telecasts of sport in the digital broadcasting era It outlines the broad theoretical debates political positions and policy calculations over the provision of live free to air telecasts of sport as a right of cultural citizenship In so doing the book provides a number of comparative case studies that explore these debates and issues in various global spaces Encyclopedia of Television Horace Newcomb,2014-02-03 The Encyclopedia of Television second edition is the first major reference work to provide description history analysis and information on more than 1100 subjects related to television in its international context For a full list of entries contributors and more visit the Encyclo pedia of Television 2nd edition website How Canadians Communicate V David Taras,Christopher Waddell,2016-03-15 Fewer Canadians than ever are lacing up skates swimming lengths at the pool practicing their curve ball and experiencing the thrill of competition However despite a decline in active participation Canadians spend enormous amounts of time and money on sports as fans and followers of sporting events and sports culture Never has media coverage of sports been more exhaustive and never has it been more driven by commercial interests and the need to fuel consumerism on which corporate profits depend But the power plays now occurring in the arena of sports are by no means solely a matter of money At issue as well in the media capture of sports are the values that inform our daily lives the physical and emotional health of the population and the symbols so long central to a sense of Canadian identity Writing from a variety of perspectives the contributors to this collection set out to explore the impact of the media on our reception of and attitudes toward sports to unpack the meanings that sports have for us as citizens and consumers Some contributors probe the function of sports as spectacle the escalation of violence controversies over drug use and the media s coverage of tragic deaths while others shed light on the way in which the media serve to transform sports into a vehicle for the expression of identity and nationalism The goal is not to score points but to prompt critical discussion of why sports matter in Canadian life and culture and how they contribute to the construction of identity

Canadian Television Programming Made for the United States Market Marsha Ann Tate,2007 Factors which led to an independent television production sector in Toronto Ontario and the Ontario based companies that have competed in the U S marketplace Alliance Atlantis Communications is given particular attention as one of Ontario s most successful production companies Economic and political influences as well as current and future prospects of independent production companies are discussed Provided by publisher Canadian Book Review Annual Joyce M.

Wilson,2002-06 Getting What You Deserve Dale Goldhawk,2003-10-01 For 12 years Dale Goldhawk journeyed through the streets of Canada and into the hearts of thousands of Canadians Written in Goldhawk s punchy to the point style this book links his life as a journalist and advocate with those who were his clients For the first time he reveals the background battles and adventures he and his team had as well as the stories of his clients and where they are today The narrative paints a vivid picture of how working on Canada s most original advocacy team changed their lives as journalists and Canadians

Canadian Books in Print 2002 Edited by Butler Marian,Marian Butler,2002-02 Containing more than 48000 titles of which approximately 4000 have a 2001 imprint the author and title index is extensively cross referenced It offers a complete directory of Canadian publishers available listing the names and ISBN prefixes as well as the street e mail and web addresses

Index de Périodiques Canadiens ,2002 Communicating in Canada's Past Gene Allen,Daniel Robinson,2009-12-13 Communicating in Canada s Past evolved out of essays presented at the inaugural Conference on Media History in Canada of 2006 which brought together media historians from across the disciplines and from both French and English Canada The first collection of its kind this volume assembles both well established and up and coming scholars to address sizable gaps in the literature on media history in Canada Communicating in Canada s Past includes a substantial introduction to media history as a field of study historiographical essays by senior scholars Mary Vipond Paul Rutherford and Fernande Roy and original research essays on a range of subjects including print journalism radio television and advertising Editors Gene Allen and Daniel J Robinson have provided a sophisticated wide ranging introduction for those who are new to media history while also assembling a valuable collection of new research and theory for those already familiar with the field Communication History in Canada Daniel J. Robinson,2004 A distinctive blend of history geography government economics and biculturalism meant that communication systems and the mass media evolved differently in Canada than in either the United States or Europe Bringing together twenty six articles that range in subject from colonial newspapers in the early 1800s to music television in the 1980s Communication History in Canada provides the historical foundation for a thorough contextual analysis of modern day media and communication in this country From Marshall McLuhan and Harold Innis to Mary Vipond and Will Straw the authors in this volume represent a wide cross section of disciplines including history communication studies sociology journalism political science and film studies Their essays are grouped in five sections Time Space Technology and Nation which explores the relationship between media society and human thought Postal Systems and Telecommunications which centres on the telegraph the telephone and computers Print Mass Media which describes the origins and diffusion of newspapers and magazines with a particular emphasis on commercialization through advertising and market research Broadcast Media which charts the rise of radio broadcasting in the inter war years and of television broadcasting from the 1950s through the 1980s and Cultural Industries which examines film and sound recording The Canadian Historical Review ,2001 American Book Publishing Record ,2002 Choice ,2002 Canadian Books in Print ,2003 Canadian Content Ryan Edwardson,2008 Canadian Content looks at Canada as an ongoing postcolonial process of not one but a series of radically different nationhoods each with its own valued but tentative set of cultural criteria for orchestrating and implementing a Canadian national experience Broadcasting ,1967 Television & Cable Factbook ,2009
