Cuban Counterpoint Tobacco And Sugar:

Cuban Counterpoint, Tobacco and Sugar Fernando Ortiz, 1995 First published in 1940 and long out of print Fernando Ortiz's classic work Cuban Counterpoint is recognized as one of the most important books of Latin American and Caribbean intellectual history Ortiz's examination of the impact of sugar and tobacco on Cuban society is unquestionably the cornerstone of Cuban studies and a key source for work on Caribbean culture generally Ortiz presents his understanding of Cuban history in two complementary sections written in contrasting styles a playful allegorical tale narrated as a counterpoint between tobacco and sugar and a historical analysis of their development as the central agricultural products of the Cuban economy His work shows how transculturation a critical category Ortiz developed to grasp the complex transformation of cultures brought together in the crucible of colonial and imperial histories can be used to illuminate not only the history of Cuba but more generally that of America as well This new edition includes an introductory essay by Fernando Coronil that provides a contrapuntal reading of the relationship between Ortiz's book and its original introduction by the renowned anthropologist Bronislaw Malinowski Arguing for a distinction between theory production and canon formation Coronil demonstrates the value of Ortiz's book for anthropology as well as Cuban Caribbean and Latin American studies and shows Ortiz to be newly relevant to contemporary debates about modernity postmodernism and postcoloniality

World Literature and the Postcolonial Elke Sturm-Trigonakis, 2020-05-18 This volume approaches literary representations of post and neocolonialism by combining their readings with respective theoretical configurations. The aim is to cast light upon common characteristics of contemporary texts from around the world that deal with processes of colonization. Based on the epistemic discourses of postimperialism postcolonialism globalization and world literature the volume's chapters bring together international scholars from various disciplines in the Humanities including Comparative Cultural Studies Slavic Romance German and African Studies. The main concern of the contributions is to conceptualize an autonomous category of a world literature of the colonial going well beyond established classifications according to single languages or center periphery dichotomies.

Art, Travel, and Exchange between Iberia and Global Geographies, c. 1400-1550, 2024-12-16 Traditional narratives hold that the art and architecture of the Iberian Peninsula in the late 15th century were transformed by the arrival of artists objects and ideas from northern Europe. The year 1492 has been interpreted as a radical rupture marking the end of the Islamic presence on the peninsula the beginning of global encounters and the intensification of exchange between Iberia and Renaissance Italy. This volume aims to nuance and challenge this narrative considering the Spanish and Portuguese worlds in conjunction and emphasising the multi directional migrations of both objects and people to and from the peninsula. This long marginalised region is recast as a diffuse artistic centre in close contact with Europe and the wider world. The chapters interweave varied media geographies and approaches to create a rich tapestry held together by itinerant artworks artists and ideas.
