Donations to the Knights Hospitaller in Britain and Ireland, 1291-1400 Rory MacLellan,2020-11-29 Donations to the Knights Hospitaller in Britain and Ireland 1291 1400 is the first study of donations to the Knights Hospitaller throughout England and Ireland during the late thirteenth and fourteenth centuries The book demonstrates that patrons donated to both military and non military orders for much the same reasons particularly family connections or the desire for spiritual benefit rather than an interest in crusading Such a conclusion has important implications for the treatment of the military orders by scholars of medieval religion who traditionally have either overlooked these orders entirely or relegated them to a subfield of crusade studies rather than treating them as a full part of mainstream religious life By reincorporating the military orders into mainstream religious history discussion will be furthered in a range of fields and debates such as ecclesiastical landholding lay church relations the role of women in religion and the processes of the Reformation By focusing on the period 1291 to 1400 the book considers the impact of the loss of the Holy Land in 1291 the subsequent diffusion in crusade activity to the Baltic and Spain the intensification of the order s career as English royal servants in Wales Scotland and Ireland and the Hospitallers crusade to Rhodes in 1309 10 This book will appeal to scholars and students of the Hospitallers as well as those interested in medieval Britain and Ireland

The New Concise History of the Crusades Thomas F. Madden,2005 In this sweeping yet crisp history the author offers a brilliant and compelling narrative of the Crusades and their contemporary relevance Crusade and Conversion on the Baltic Frontier 1150–1500 Alan V. Murray, 2017-07-05 This volume represents a major contribution to the history of the Northern Crusades and the Christianization of the Baltic lands in the Middle Ages from the beginnings of the Catholic mission to the time of the Reformation The subjects treated range from discussions of the ideology and practice of crusade and conversion through studies of the motivation of the crusading countries Denmark Sweden and Germany and the effects of the crusades on the countries of the eastern Baltic coast Finland Estonia Livonia Prussia and Lithuania to analyses of the literature and historiography of the crusade It brings together essays from both established and younger scholars from the western tradition with those from the modern Baltic countries and Russia and presents in English some of the fruits of the first decade of historical scholarship and dialogue after the collapse of the Iron Curtain The depth of treatment diversity of approaches and accompanying bibliography of publications make this collection a major resource for the teaching of the Baltic Crusades Ten Epochs of Church History: Ludlow, J.M.
