B. Fenn & Company, Ltd.,1995-11-28 Islamic Heritage Architecture and Art III J. Casares,S. Dominguez Amarillo,2020-08-11 Islamic architecture has enriched design with a wide variety of structural shapes including among others unique arches a wide variety of vaults and domes which allow for new forms to be developed The influence that these structural forms have in non Islamic countries was one of the themes of the 3rd International Conference on Islamic Heritage Architecture and Art at which the included papers were presented There is much to learn from past experiences to arrive at solutions which are environmentally sound and sustainable in the long term As conventional energy resources become scarce the Islamic design heritage can offer invaluable lessons on how to deal in an efficient manner with cases of hard and extreme environments Traditional architecture and urban environments in most Islamic countries are now being eroded by overemphasis on a global type of architecture and city planning As a consequence many regions are losing their identity It will become increasingly important for new developments to take light of what the classical Islamic urban designs and architectures have to offer modern society An equally important aspect covered is the analysis of the materials employed and the types of structural elements particularly those unique to Islamic architecture Preserving this heritage requires the development of appropriate conservation techniques in response to the different materials used and the ways structural forms work including under extreme conditions such as earthquakes These papers deal with the design of many types of buildings in Islamic countries including not only the better known public buildings like mosques mausolea citadels and forts but also houses and gardens engineering works such as bridges and dams irrigation systems and many others which have also had a profound impact on society Art of Ink II Sun Wuk Kim,Chinese Collectors Association Gallery (Taipei, Taiwan),Doul Art Town Gallery (Seoul, Korea),1998 Proceedings of the 2025 4th International Conference on Social Sciences and

Humanities and Arts (SSHA 2025) Sun Jing, Sun Hefei, Liu Shuli, Ren Xianpin, Cuneyt Birkok, 2025-07-22 This is an open access book With the progress of social civilization social science and its research are becoming more and more important Theoretically and practically the study of social phenomena and social problems and the development of prosperous social sciences are the eternal themes of human beings At present social science research and its results can hardly meet the needs of social development especially the unscientific evaluation of social science results which has aroused great concern from all walks of life and has produced dirt and questions on social science thus affecting the proper development of social science Max Weber once said that the most important function of social science in modern times is to keep people clear headed and to resist the delusions of prophetic legislators Humanities and arts are the process of perceiving realizing thinking manipulating and expressing objective or subjective objects through capturing and excavating feeling and analyzing integrating and applying or displaying the stage results in the form obtained through feeling seeing hearing smelling touching The social sciences and humanities and arts contain content that will directly affect our lives and the way society functions And by reacting to today s increasingly intricate problems and situations through systematic and professional discussions they will further contribute to the improvement of institutions and the development of society By thinking about issues and looking at problems and the world from different perspectives by putting the two together it may be possible to have more comprehensive appropriate and better responses for example the development of laws requires a deeper understanding of the environment in which they are implemented international trade requires a certain understanding of the customs of different countries and the development of tax and economic policies requires a certain understanding of the population consumer demand etc Graphonomics and Your Brain on Art, Creativity, and Innovation Jose Luis Contreras-Vidal, Jose M. The Legal System of Art Auction in China Zhen Zheng, 2022-02-21 This book is the first book to comprehensively and deeply explain and construct the legal system of Chinese art auctions. Based on agency theory in traditional contract law, this book combs the legal relationship between client, auctioneer, and buyer. Aiming at the most difficult problem of art identification, this book shows the obligations that auctioneers must perform and the common methods for auctioneers to avoid these obligations. The purpose of this book is to ease the current situation in which the interests of buyers and auctioneers are too opposed and speed up the legalization process of art auctions through the construction of the legal system of art auctions in China. Additionally, using the method of policy demonstration, this book discusses how public power should intervene in the process of art auctions.

Art, Politics, and Palace Eunuchs in Ming China, 1368-1644 Scarlett Jang, 2025-07-28 This is the first in-depth analysis of the place of the Ming palace eunuchs in the social history of Chinese art, examining the intricate intersections of art, politics, and palace eunuchs in the Ming dynasty. In addition to articulating the elite eunuchs' roles as important power brokers in the political arena, this monograph offers a balanced view of Ming eunuchs with evidence of their accomplishments as book authors, editors, and compilers, poets, calligraphers, and art collectors. The Confucian scholars' typical literati pursuits. By exploring both the positive and negative roles that palace eunuchs played in the Ming's visual culture, this book reveals that Ming palace eunuchs, as supervisors of both the imperial art collection and the imperial art academy and as powerful art collectors themselves, made various significant impacts on the contemporary art criticism, art market, and art collecting patterns. The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history, Sinology, and Chinese studies.
