Art Education Issues In Postmodernist Pedagogy Pb 1996:

Art Education Roger Clark, 1996 Queering Elementary Education William J. Letts IV, James T. Sears, 1999-10-27

Queering Elementary Education is not about teaching kids to be gay lesbian bisexual or straight It s not part of a sinister stratagem in the gay agenda Instead these provocative and thoughtful essays advocate the creation of classrooms that challenge categorical thinking promote interpersonal intelligence and foster critical consciousness Queer elementary classrooms are those where parents and educators care enough about their children to trust the human capacity for understanding and their educative abilities to foster insight into the human condition Those who teach queerly refuse to participate in the great sexual sorting machine called schooling where diminutive GI Joes and Barbies become star quarterbacks and prom queens while the Linuses and Tinky Winkies become wallflowers or human doormats Queering education means bracketing our simplest classroom activities in which we routinely equate sexual identities with sexual acts privilege the heterosexual condition and presume sexual destinies Queer teachers are those who develop curriculum and pedagogy that afford every child dignity rooted in self worth and esteem for others In short queering education happens when we look at schooling upside down and view childhood from the inside out This groundbreaking volume demands we explore taken for granted assumptions about diversity identities childhood and prejudice Queering Elementary Education William J. Postmodern Dilemmas Jan Jagodzinski, 2019-08-22 In Postmodern Dilemmas Outrageous Essays in Art Art Education and Punk Deconstruction Experimental Writings in Art Art Education Jan Jagodzinski presents a series of essays covering a timespan of approximately ten years. These essays chart the theory and practice of art art education as it relates to issues of postmodernity and poststructuralism concerning representation, identity, politics, consumerism, postmodern architecture, ecology, phallogentrism of the artistic canon, pluriculturalism, media and technology, and AIDS. As a former editor of The Journal of Social Theory in Art Education and a founding member for the Caucus on Social Theory in Art Education, the author attempts to deconstruct the current art education paradigm which is largely based on modernist tenets and to reorient art education practice to social issues as developed in both media education and cultural studies. Part of the intent in these two volumes is to undertake a sustained critique of the 1982 Art in the Mainstream A I M statement which continues to be considered as the core value for art education. The distinct intention of this critique is to put forward a new value base for art art education in these postmodern times. Many of the essays raise the need to be attentive to sex/gender issues in art art education and the need to read the artistic discourse otherwise. There is a sustained critique of the art programs developed by the Getty Center for the Arts whose arts curriculum presents the paradigm case of late modernist thinking. Some essays are written in a provocative form that tries to accommodate such content. This is particularly the case in Punk Deconstruction where architectural discourse is deconstructed and which includes an artistic performance given by the author in 1987. This singular set of volumes combines scholarship in the areas of gender studies, aesthetics, art history, art education, poststructuralism, and cultural studies in a unique blend of theory and practice for rethinking the field of art education.
