His concept revolved around French sonnets by Rey, nom de plume of Capitaine Paul Philibert Regnier that Joyeux brought to life with 33 original watercolors. Former Governor General of French Indochina Albert Sarraut contributed the Foreword to this artistically rare vision of the land, customs, and people of Southeast Asia. In this modern full-color hardcover edition, graphic designer Rebecca Klein hand-retouched each of Joyeux's original watercolors, adapting their elements to fit this larger format. To introduce this important French Colonial work to new audiences, an English language translation of M. Albert Sarraut's foreword is provided with a biographical profile of both artists in a preface by researcher Joel Montague.
