Art The Revealing Experience:

Art Kurt Kranz, 1964 John Dewey's Theory of Art, Experience, and Nature Thomas M. Alexander, 1987-01-01 Thomas Alexander shows that the primary guiding concern of Dewey's philosophy is his theory of aesthetic experience. He directly challenges those critics most notably Stephen Pepper and Benedetto Croce who argued that this area is the least consistent part of Dewey's thought. The author demonstrates that the fundamental concept in Dewey's system is that of experience and that paradigmatic treatment of experience is to be found in Dewey's analysis of aesthetics and art. The confusions resulting from the neglect of this orientation have led to prolonged misunderstandings, eventual neglect, and unwarranted popularity for ideas at odds with the genuine thrust of Dewey's philosophical concerns. By exposing the underlying aesthetic foundations of Dewey's philosophy, Alexander aims to rectify many of these errors, generating a fruitful new interest in Dewey. Art and Objecthood Michael Fried, 1998-04-18 Much acclaimed and highly controversial Michael Fried's art criticism defines the contours of late modernism in the visual arts. This volume contains 27 pieces, uncompromising, exciting, and impassioned writings aware of their transformative power during a time of intense controversy about the nature of modernism and the aims and essence of advanced painting and sculpture. 16 color plates, 72 halftones. Minimal Art Gregory Battcock, 1995-08-03 This is a collection of writings by and about the work of the 1960s minimalists, illustrated with photographs of paintings, sculptures, and performance. The Museum, 1925 Museum publications, Jan 1929, v 2, p 28-32.

The Art of Acting Dawn Langman, 2014-04-07 This book will be invaluable to teachers, acting students, and practitioners alike. Langman's inspired methods, fed by some 45 years of teaching and practice, ensure the highest outcomes for the integration of voice, speech, and language as a central ingredient of the actor's craft. She is the most unique and brilliant master teacher in this area I have ever encountered. Rosalba Clemente, Head of Acting, Drama Centre, Flinders University. A rite de passage working with Langman's book is an initiation into the practice of Future Theatre. Dr Jane Gilmer, Assistant Professor of Drama, VPA National Institute of Education, Singapore. A remarkable achievement that communicates a lifetime of teaching artistry with grace and depth and most significantly reveals the profound spiritual impulses at the heart of Michael Chekhov's original impulse. A gift for the generations. Dr Diane Caracciolo, Associate Professor of Educational Theatre, Adelphi University. Over the past decades, there has been a resurgence of interest in Chekhov's acting technique. The original publishers of his fundamental text, To the Actor, removed most of the author's references to Rudolf Steiner, but recent studies acknowledge Chekhov's personal interest in anthroposophy as the source of his artistic inspiration. Dawn Langman explores the fundamentals of Chekhov's psycho-physical technique and the metaphysical principles on which it is based. She examines this technique in relation to the specific challenges and gifts provided by the actor's constitution of body, soul, and spirit, and in the context of the canon of great poetic and dramatic texts, illuminated by Steiner's insights into humanity's evolving consciousness. The Art of Acting lays the foundation for the second and third books in her series, in which Langman explores

Rudolf Steiner's art of speech and its integration with Michael Chekhov's methodology Together these books offer a contemporary spiritually enlivened path of development for the actor in which the combined insights of Steiner and Chekhov lead to new possibilities for the performing arts
