Art Under Control In North Korea:

Art Under Control in North Korea Jane Portal, 2005-08-15 Nuclear bombs and geopolitical controversy are often the first things associated with North Korea and its volatile leader Kim Jong II Yet behind the secretive curtain of this isolated nation also lies a little known and slowly expanding world of art Art Under Control in North Korea is the first Western publication to explore the state controlled role of art in North Korea This timely volume places North Korean art in its historical political and social contexts with a discussion on the state system of cultivating and promoting artists and an examination of the range of art produced from painting and calligraphy to architecture and applied art Portal offers an incisive analysis that compares the dictatorial control exerted over artists by North Korean leaders to that of past regimes She also examines the ways in which archaeology has been employed for political ends to legitimize the present regime Art Under Control in North Korea is an intriguing and vibrant volume that explores the creation of art under totalitarian rule and the ways art can subvert a dictatorial regime Art and Sovereignty in Global Politics Douglas Howland, Elizabeth Lillehoj, Maximilian

Mayer, 2016-12-01 This volume aims to question challenge supplement and revise current understandings of the relationship between aesthetic and political operations The authors transcend disciplinary boundaries and nurture a wide ranging sensibility about art and sovereignty two highly complex and interwoven dimensions of human experience that have rarely been explored by scholars in one conceptual space Several chapters consider the intertwining of modern philosophical currents and modernist artistic forms in particular those revealing formal abstraction stylistic experimentation self conscious expression and resistance to traditional definitions of Art Other chapters deal with currents that emerged as facets of art became increasingly commercialized merging with industrial design and popular entertainment industries Some contributors address Post Modernist art and theory highlighting power relations and providing sceptical critical commentary on repercussions of colonialism and notions of universal truths rooted in Western ideals By interfering with established dichotomies and unsettling stable debates related to art and sovereignty all contributors frame new perspectives on the co constitution of artworks and practices of sovereignty The Journal of Korean Studies, Volume 14, Number 1 (Fall 2009) Clark W. Sorensen, Hwasook Nam, 2010-01-16 The University of Washington Korea Studies Program in collaboration with Rowman Littlefield Publishers is proud to publish the Journal of Korean Studies In 1979 Dr James Palais PhD Harvard 1968 former UW professor of Korean History edited and published the first volume of the Journal of Korean Studies For thirteen years it was a leading academic forum for innovative in depth research on Korea In 2004 former editors Gi Wook Shin and John Duncan revived this outstanding publication at Stanford University In August 2008 editorial responsibility transferred back to the University of Washington With the editorial guidance of Clark Sorensen and Donald Baker the Journal of Korean Studies JKS continues to be dedicated to publishing outstanding articles from all disciplines on a broad range of historical and contemporary topics concerning Korea In addition the JKS publishes reviews of the latest Korea related books
