As Others See Us Ellen Goldman, 2004-03-01 As Others See Us first published in 1994 by Gordon Breach is a book designed to introduce the reader to a new way of thinking about the movements both conscious and unconscious that we make every day and every second of our lives Goldman describes the human experience as a continuous stream of body movements though we are only aware of a small fraction of the more obvious and intrusive physical acts The aim of this book is first to increase awareness of the subtleties and complexities of our body language and then to encourage the reader to perceive these intricacies in their own movements and in those of others Finally with a more complete understanding and appreciation for the power of body language and non verbal communication one can achieve a deeper connection between physical and intellectual spheres to allow for a fuller and more engaging experience of communication and expression This new knowledge of the human body s movements not only permits one to more accurately perceive the emotions and thoughts of others but can allow a glimpse into one s own mind to see how we present ourselves to the world and whether our thoughts are in sync with our actions Central to the text is the author s treatment of the Integrated Movement a term used to describe the merger of a posture and a gesture with a consistent quality dynamic or shape This approach to understanding and explaining human movement offers a unique way of thinking about conscious gesture unconscious body language and verbal speech as interconnected communication a synthesis that allows for a more complete view of ourselves and others around us The structure of the book follows a logical framework that mirrors the progress of the reader from perception of movement to the close inspection of gesture and body language to the introduction and experience of Integrated Movement to the application of one s new awareness to different aspects of life Biographical sketches of leading figures in the field are included as are suggestions for additional reading and resources Perhaps the most unique feature of the book are the personal exercises boxed off text that appear on almost every other page These exercises are designed to allow the reader to experience the power of body language in real life situations while working towards the increased awareness and perception that is the goal of the book

Arts, Theology, and the Church Kimberly J. Vrudny, Wilson Yates, 2005 Why should the church be involved with the arts What are the roles that the arts play in the religious life How does art reveal the presence of God What is the relationship between the spiritual and the aesthetic What is the relationship between Christian symbols and their artistic expression How can the arts be used in the practice of ministry and worship A renewed interest in religion and the arts is creating these questions as it emerges in both academic and church settings Arts Theology and the Church a never before published collection of essays from pre eminent scholars in the field of religion and the arts reveals these scholars most edgy contemporary thoughts It is a foundational work that offers new understandings about the relationship of the arts to theology history and the practice of ministry in the church Ernest L. Blumenschein Robert W. Larson, Carole B. Larson, 2013-05-07 Few who appreciate the visual arts or the American Southwest can behold the masterpieces Sangre de Cristo Mountains or Haystack Taos Valley 1927 or Bend in the River 1941 and come away without a vivid image burned into memory The creator of these and many other depictions of the Southwest and its people was Ernest L Blumenschein cofounder of the famous Taos art colony This insightful comprehensive biography examines the character and life experiences that made Blumenschein one of the foremost artists of the twentieth century Robert W Larson and Carole B Larson begin their life of Blumenschein with his Ohio childhood and trace his development as an artist from early study in Cincinnati New York City and Paris through his first career as a book and magazine illustrator Blumenschein and artist Bert G Phillips discovered the budding art community of Taos New Mexico in 1898 In 1915 the two along with Joseph Henry Sharp E Irving Couse and other like minded artists organized the Taos Society of Artists famous for preferring American subjects over European themes popular at the time Leaving illustration work behind Blumenschein sought a distinctive place in his American homeland and in fine art painting He moved with his family to Taos in 1919 and began his long career as a figurative and landscape painter becoming prominent among American artists for his Pueblo Indian figures and stunning southwestern landscapes Robert Larson calls Blumenschein a transformational artist trained classically but drawing to a limited degree on abstract representation Placing Blumenschein's life in the context of World War I the Great Depression and other national and world events the authors show how an artistic genius turned a fascination with the people light and color of New Mexico into a body of work of lasting significance to the international art world Art in Action Guy Hubbard, 1987 Sequential lessons explore the four art disciplines aesthetic perception creative expression art heritage and aesthetic valuing Incorporates creation of art works by students in a variety of media and techniques No art background for the teacher is assumed or required Looking at the Landscapes The J.
