Art Of Loss Poems:

The Art of Losing Kevin Young,2013-11-05 Poems about the various stages of grief with 150 selections from a variety of 20th 21st century poets     The Art of Losing M. Wynn Thomas,2025-02-06 A timeless collection of poetry that captures the weight of grief and the hope of healing Grief is a deeply personal experience but poetry has long offered a way to give it form In the third installation of the acclaimed Twelve Poems series The Art of Losing brings together a series of handpicked poems that explore loss in its many forms whether personal communal or even linguistic From the heartbreak of losing a loved one to the collective sorrow of a community tragedy these poems give voice to the depth of human sorrow while also offering a path toward meaning and solace M Wynn Thomas explores how poets give shape to grief capturing its unbridled emotion before leading us toward reflection Spanning works from the medieval era to the present this collection reveals how poetry helps us make sense of loss not by lessening its weight but by reminding us that we do not carry it alone     The Art of Loss Myrna Stone,2001 The title of this collection states the central theme the losses that accrue over time This particular poetic persona deals with these losses the loss of faith of loved ones of innocence losses of both a personal and of a larger historical nature losses that simultaneously deplete and elevate     Elizabeth Bishop and Her Art Lloyd Schwartz,Sybil P. Estess,1983 As the first book length collection to focus on Elizabeth Bishop this book has become an essential resource on this poet now recognized as one of America s greatest artists whose poetry as Harold Bloom says in his foreword stands at the edge where what is most worth saying is all but impossible to say The volume includes major essays by David Kalstone Helen Vendler and Robert Pinsky among others a chronology of short articles and reviews poems memoirs and memorials many by major poets among them Bishop s three most notable supporters Marianne Moore Robert Lowell and Randall Jarrell and an illuminating selection of work by Bishop herself some of which is unavailable anywhere else Publisher s description     The Pursuit of Myth in the Poetry of Frank O'Hara, Ted Berrigan and John Forbes Duncan Hose,2022-04-04 The Pursuit of Myth in the Poetry of Frank O Hara Ted Berrigan and John Forbes traces a tradition of revolutionary self mythologising in the lives and works of Frank O Hara Ted Berrigan and John Forbes as a significant trefoil in twentieth century English language poetry All three had untimely deaths excited a collective homage and developed cult followings that reverberate today This book tracks the transmission of the poem as charm the poet as charmer and the reinstitution of troubadour erotics as a kind of social poetics Starting with Orpheus the book refreshes the myth of the poet as mythmaker examining how myths of self and nation are regenerated for the twenty first century and how persons as myths are made in community through coteries of artists and beyond Duncan Bruce Hose s critical vocabulary with its nucleus of mythos searches the edges of phenomenal enquiry closing in on the work of glamour aura charm possession phantasm the daemonic and the logic of haunting in the continuing being of these three poets as charismatic animals     Lost Loss in American Elegiac Poetry Toshiaki Komura,2020-10-07 Lost Loss in American Elegiac Poetry Tracing Inaccessible Grief from Stevens to Post 9 11 examines contemporary literary expressions of losses that are lost on us inquiring what it means to lose loss and what happens when dispossessory experiences go unacknowledged or become inaccessible Toshiaki Komura analyzes a range of elegiac poetry that does not neatly align with conventional assumptions about the genre including Wallace Stevens's The Owl in the Sarcophagus Sylvia Plath's last poems Elizabeth Bishop's Geography III Sharon Olds's The Dead and the Living Louise Glück's Averno and poems written after 9/11 What these poems reveal at the intersection of personal and communal mourning are the mechanism of cognitive myth making involved in denied grief and its social and ethical implications Engaging with an assortment of philosophical psychoanalytic and psychological theories Lost Loss in American Elegiac Poetry elucidates how poetry gives shape to the vague despondency of unrecognized loss and what kind of phantomic effects these equivocal grieving experiences may create The Sunset Is Beautiful, Isn't It sharanya singh, 2025-10-16 Some goodbyes don't echo in words they linger in silence in verses in the spaces people leave behind In this intimate collection of poems I explores the quiet ache of letting go of someone you love Written with raw honesty and emotional depth each piece captures the delicate process of grieving not just the absence of a person but the unraveling of shared memories unspoken feelings and the echoes of love that remain Through themes of loss longing and healing the author offers a poetic companion for anyone who has ever had to say goodbye before they were ready These poems are reflections of strength reminders that it's okay to feel to grieve and to grow through sorrow This is a book for the hearts that break gently and the souls who search for peace in poetry
