The Art of Raymond Jonson, Painter Ed Garman,1976      Raymond Jonson and the Spiritual in Modernist and Abstract Painting Herbert R. Hartel, Jr.,2018-02-21 This is the most thorough and detailed monograph on the artwork of Raymond Jonson He is one of many artists of the first half of the twentieth century who demonstrate the richness and diversity of an under appreciated period in the history of American art Visualizing the spiritual was one of the fundamental goals of early abstract painting in the years before and during World War I Artists turned to alternative spirituality the occult and mysticism believing that the pure use of line shape color light and texture could convey spiritual insight Jonson was steadfastly dedicated to this goal for most of his career and he always believed that modernist and abstract styles were the most effective and compelling means of achieving it      The Art of Raymond Jonson, Painter University of New Mexico Press,1976      A Retrospective Exhibition of Painting by Raymond Jonson Raymond Jonson,Museum of New Mexico,1956

Raymond Jonson University of New Mexico. Art Museum,1964      To Form from Air Robert O. Ware,Raymond Jonson,MaLin Wilson-Powell,2010 The magnificent textiles produced during this time are little known outside of the Pueblo world      A Retrospective Exhibition of Paintings by Raymond Jonson Raymond Jonson,Museum of New Mexico,1956

American Paintings and Sculpture in the University Art Museum Collection University of Minnesota. University Art Museum,1986      The Majesty of the Grand Canyon Joni Kinsey,2004 Little was known about America s most famous natural wonder until 1869 when John Wesley Powell traveled the full length of the Grand Canyon by boat He returned each year in 1873 he introduced it to artist Thomas Moran whose brazenly colored grand scale portrayals of the canyon stunned the public In 1908 Moran s work prompted President Theodore Roosevelt to declare the Grand Canyon a national monument by 1919 Congress had established Grand Canyon National Park As the Santa Fe Railway opened up the Southwest in 1892 the company began hiring artists to paint scenes of the Grand Canyon including Moran W R Leigh and Louis Akin Today artists are still capturing the splendor of the Grand Canyon Ed Mell Clark Hulings Wilson Hurley Frank Mason P A Nisbet Bruce Aiken and Earl Carpenter are among the contemporary artists represented in The Majesty of the Grand Canyon

American Art Directory ,1923 The biographical material formerly included in the directory is issued separately as Who s who in American art 1936 37      Locating American Art Cynthia Fowler,2017-07-05 How does museum location shape the interpretation of an art object by critics curators art historians and others To what extent is the value of a work of art determined by its location Providing a close examination of individual works of American art in relation to gallery and museum location this anthology presents case studies of paintings sculpture photographs and other media that explore these questions about the relationship between location and the prescribed meaning of art It takes an alternate perspective in that it provides in depth analysis of works of art that are less well known than the usual American art suspects and in locations outside of art museums in major urban cultural centers By doing so the contributors to this volume reveal that such a shift in focus yields an expanded and more complex understanding of American art Close examinations are given to works located in small and mid sized art museums throughout the United States museums that generally do not benefit from the resources afforded by more powerful cultural establishments such as the Museum of Modern Art and the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York Works of art located at institutions other than art museums are also examined Although the book primarily focuses on paintings other media created from the Colonial Period to the present are considered including material culture and craft The volume takes an inclusive approach to American art by featuring works created by a diverse group of artists from canonical to lesser known ones and provides new insights by highlighting the regional and the local

Lawren Stewart Harris artistic career began in the first decade of our century Well known for the nationalist inspired landscapes that he painted between 1908 and 1932 Harris turned resolutely in 1934 to the painting of abstractions He continued to create works that reflected his own modernist and mystical developments until the end of his life Canadians praise Harris landscapes and admire him as a planner of innovative and heroic sounding sketching trips into the North He is also recognized as the chief organizer of the Group of Seven A long list of younger artists he considered creative greatly benefited from Harris encouragement and often generous practical help many of them have been interviewed for this book In the lives of some Canadians harris still functions as a gurulike guide a role he was quite content to take on during his own lifetime because of the spiritual content of his art and aesthetic writings and the example of his optimistic vigorous and apparently untroubled life But Harris was not an untroubled life and Light for a Cold Land examines his personal crises and difficulties some of which caused important changes in his art The book also uncovers the painting styles artistic tensions and cultural dynamics of the German milieu in which Harris received his only formal art education His student years in Berlin profoundly influenced not only his art but also his artistic politics and his philosophy It is ironic that in the art of this most articulate of Canadian nationalist painters there are extensive German influences Light for a Cold Land is the first art historical study of Lawren Harris that attempts to explore his life and all aspects of his career It is based on extensive work in archives libraries public art galleries and private collections in Canada as well as research in Germany and interviews with members of Harris family and many of his friends acquaintances colleagues and critics
