Debra Bricker Balken, 2005-08-02 In this incisive study the curator and writer Debra Bricker Balken examines the work of the leading artists associated with Abstract Expressionism including Willem de Kooning Lee Krasner Robert Motherwell Barnett Newman Jackson Pollock and Mark Rothko At the same time she examines the myths surrounding the movement the variation in the motivation and practice of artists grouped by art historians under the same heading and the role played by critics in the movement's reception both at the time and up to the present day Of equal value to the general reader and the art historical scholar alike Balken's text is a valuable addition to the literature on one of the most influential of all twentieth century art movements BOOK JACKET The Concise Oxford Dictionary of Art and Artists Ian Chilvers,2003 Searchable database of 2500 entries Guide to Western Art from ancient Greece to the present Includes artists ranging from Polyclitus of Argos to Andy Warhol with entries on younger contemporary artists such as Damien Hirst Julian Schnabel and Rachel Whiteread Here also are periods and movements including the Classical period the Renaissance impressionism the Ashcan School and Cubism as well as techniques and styles such as encaustic painting encarnado lithography cabinet painting and blot drawing Abstract Expressionism and the American Experience Irving Sandler,1996 Encyclopedia of the New York School Poets Terence Diggory,2009 An A to Z reference to writers of the New York School including John Ashbery who is often considered America's greatest living poet Examines significant movements in literary history and its development through the years Abstract Expressionism Richard Spilsbury,2008-12-18 Discusses the history characteristics and artists associated with the abstract expressionist movement and includes related activities and a look at vocational opportunities in the field of art Global Art, Culture, and Media Perspectives Hemanth Pawar,2025-02-20 Global Art Culture and Media Perspectives offers a comprehensive exploration of the intricate relationships between art culture and media in our interconnected world We delve into the profound impact of globalization on creative expressions cultural identities and media landscapes Beginning with an examination of the historical and theoretical foundations of globalization we explore how it has transformed the production distribution and consumption of art culture and media Through diverse case studies and theoretical frameworks we provide insights into the complexities of cultural exchange hybridization and resistance in the contemporary global context We critically engage with contemporary artworks cultural phenomena and media artifacts to uncover the diverse manifestations of global cultural production and consumption From international art biennials to transnational media conglomerates we highlight how individuals and communities navigate cultural differences today We address the power dynamics in global cultural flows including cultural imperialism hegemony and appropriation advocating for a more inclusive and equitable approach to cultural exchange Examples of cultural activism grassroots media initiatives and collaborative artistic projects demonstrate how art culture and media foster cross cultural dialogue and solidarity Accessible yet intellectually rigorous this book is essential for anyone interested in creativity communication and globalization Modern Art Pam Meecham,Julie Sheldon,2000 This textbook provides a comprehensive guide to modern and post modern art The authors bring together history theory and the art works themselves to help students understand how and why art has developed during the 20th century Rereading Abstract Expressionism, Clement Greenberg and the Cold War Daniel Neofetou,2021-09-23 Since the 1970s it has been argued that Abstract Expressionism was exhibited abroad by the post war US establishment in an attempt to culturally match and reinforce its newfound economic and military dominance The account of Abstract Expressionism developed by the American critic Clement Greenberg is often identified as central to these efforts. However, this book rereads Greenberg's account through Theodor Adorno and Maurice Merleau-Ponty in order to contend that Greenberg's criticism, in fact, testifies to how Abstract Expressionism opposes the ends to which it was deployed. With reference not only to the most famous artists of the movement but also female artists and artists of colour whom Greenberg himself neglected such as Joan Mitchell and Norman Lewis, it is argued that far from reinforcing the capitalist status quo, Abstract Expressionism engages corporeal and affective elements of experience dismissed or delegitimated by capitalism and promises a world that would do justice to them.

Abstract Expressionist works on paper from the permanent collection of The Metropolitan Museum of Art are presented in this volume which documents the wealth of the Museum's holdings in that area. Many of them are published here for the first time and several are recent additions to the collection. All are illustrated in full-page color reproductions that show the nuances of each work in great detail. The Abstract Expressionists are best known for their paintings and sculptures and virtually all of the many publications about these artists concentrate on those large-scale works. This unique catalogue deals exclusively with their smaller, more intimate works on paper, providing many new insights about the routes that led to the Abstract Expressionists' innovative artistic accomplishments. The nineteen artists included are William Baziotes, James Brooks, Elaine de Kooning, Willem de Kooning, Arshile Gorky, Adolph Gottlieb, Philip Guston, Gerome Kamrowski, Franz Kline, Robert Motherwell, Barnett Newman, Jackson Pollock, Richard Pousette-Dart, Theodore Roszak, Mark Rothko, Anne Ryan, David Smith, Theodoros Stamos, and Mark Tobey. Each of them is discussed in a separate essay which encompasses information about the artist's background and development, commentary about the importance of drawing in his or her oeuvre, and an analysis of each work in the selection. Also included in the essays is technical information about a number of the individual works that enhances understanding of the variety and originality of these artists' media and techniques.

The Power of Art Caroline Campbell, 2023-10-12
To read most histories of art, you might be forgiven for supposing that great artists are superhuman and the knowledge of different movements, periods, and styles is essential to truly appreciate art. It's time to look at art in a new way. THE POWER OF ART delves into the stories behind remarkable acts of creation in fifteen global cities at pivotal moments of artistic brilliance. It shows how art is an integral part of our daily lives, embedded in the very fabric of our existence. From the enduring wonders of ancient Babylon to the menacing pastel architecture of contemporary Pyongyang, eminent curator Caroline Campbell intertwines the stories of artists with the broader social, cultural, and political landscapes of their time. In each vivid episode, Campbell reveals how art, in all its forms, is a testament to humanity's inventiveness and ingenuity; it has served our fundamental needs for shelter, sustenance, spirituality, pleasure, order, and community. But it can also evoke envy, anger, greed, and even be used as a means of social control. Spanning thousands of years of creativity, THE POWER OF ART will ignite your imagination and open your eyes to the art that surrounds us, whether it be a painting in a
