Preparing for Graduate School Academic Writing Ashan R Hampton, 2020-09-28 Graduate school is all about writing Are you prepared to write 15 20 page academic papers How about 200 pages of a thesis or a dissertation Do you know how to take a blank page and create a scholarly research project Without strong writing skills you will not succeed in your master s or doctoral program Preparing for Graduate School Academic Writing assesses your readiness for graduate level learning through surveys exercises and succinct introductory lessons on the most essential aspects of graduate writing such as standards style plagiarism source evaluation and online library research skills in a full color workbook format As a potential current or returning graduate student you must become familiar with peer reviewed articles literature reviews abstracts references and annotated bibliographies before advancing too far into your program of study Otherwise you might get overwhelmed by the expectations to immediately produce this kind of content with very little instruction Therefore equipping yourself for the rigors of academic writing is worth the extra time and effort to avoid stress confusion or burnout

Teaching Academic Writing as a Discipline-Specific Skill in Higher Education Ezra, El-Sadig Y., Drid, Touria, 2019-12-27 It is now held that writing influences and is influenced by the discipline where it occurs The representations that writers employ to produce and comprehend texts are said to be sensitive to the specificities of their disciplinary discourse communities This exposes writers to divergent disciplinary demands and expectations on what counts as good and appropriate writing in terms of generic structure discourse features and stylistic preferences reflecting dissimilar practices Because of such exigencies academic writing seems at times to be very challenging especially for novice scholars Thus any attempt to perceive the function of academic writing in higher education or to evaluate its quality should not discard the shaping force of the disciplines Teaching Academic Writing as a Discipline Specific Skill in Higher Education is a critical scholarly resource that examines the role of writing within academic circles and the disciplinary practices of writing in scholastic environments The book will also explore the particular difficulties that confront writers in the disciplines as well as the endeavors of educational institutions to develop discipline specific writing traditions among practicing and novice scholars Featuring a range of topics such as blended learning data interpretation and knowledge construction this book is essential for instructors academicians administrators professors researchers and students Re/Writing the Center Susan Lawrence, Terry Myers Zawacki, 2019-03-15 Re Writing the Center illuminates how core writing center pedagogies and institutional arrangements are complicated by the need to create intentional targeted support for advanced graduate writers Most writing center tutors are undergraduates whose lack of familiarity with the genres preparatory knowledge and research processes integral to graduate level writing can leave them underprepared to assist graduate students Complicating the issue is that many of the graduate students who take advantage of writing center support are international students The essays in this volume show how to navigate the divide between traditional writing center theory and practices developed to support undergraduate writers and the growing demand for writing centers to meet the needs of advanced graduate writers Contributors address core assumptions of writing center pedagogy such as the concept of peers and peer tutoring the emphasis on one to one tutorials the positioning of tutors as generalists rather than specialists and even the notion of the writing center as the primary location or center of the tutoring process Re Writing the Center offers an imaginative perspective on the benefits writing centers can offer to graduate students and on the new possibilities for inquiry and practice graduate students can inspire in the writing center Contributors Laura Brady Michelle Cox Thomas Deans Paula Gillespie Mary Glavan Marilyn Gray James Holsinger Elena Kallestinova Tika Lamsal Patrick S Lawrence Elizabeth Lenaghan Michael A Pemberton Sherry Wynn Perdue Doug Phillips Juliann Reineke Adam Robinson Steve Simpson Nathalie Singh Corcoran Ashly Bender Smith Sarah Summers Molly Tetreault Joan Turner Bronwyn T Williams Joanna Wolfe Learning from the Lived Experiences of Graduate Student Writers Shannon Madden, Michele Eodice, Kirsten T.

Edwards, Alexandria Lockett, 2020-07-01 Learning from the Lived Experiences of Graduate Student Writers is a timely resource for understanding and resolving some of the issues graduate students face particularly as higher education begins to pay more critical attention to graduate student success Offering diverse approaches for assisting this demographic the book bridges the gap between theory and practice through structured examination of graduate students narratives about their development as writers as well as researched approaches for enabling these students to cultivate their craft The first half of the book showcases the voices of graduate student writers themselves who describe their experiences with graduate school literacy through various social issues like mentorship access writing in communities and belonging in academic programs Their narratives illuminate how systemic issues significantly affect graduate students from historically oppressed groups The second half accompanies these stories with proposed solutions informed by empirical findings that provide evidence for new practices and programming for graduate student writers Learning from the Lived Experiences of Graduate Student Writers values student experience as an integral part of designing approaches that promote epistemic justice This text provides a fresh comprehensive and essential perspective on graduate writing and communication support that will be useful to administrators and faculty across a range of disciplines and institutional contexts Contributors Noro Andriamanalina LaKela Atkinson Daniel V Bommarito Elizabeth Brown Rachael Cayley Amanda E Cuellar Kirsten T Edwards Wonderful Faison Amy Fenstermaker Jennifer Friend Beth Godbee Hope Jackson Karen Keaton Jackson Haadi Jafarian Alexandria Lockett Shannon Madden Kendra L Mitchell Michelle M Paquette Shelley Rodrigo Julia Romberger Lisa Russell Pinson Jennifer Salvo Eaton Richard S v re Cecilia D Shelton Pamela Strong Simmons Jasmine Kar Tang Anna K Willow Trevi o Maurice Wilson Anne Zanzucchi Genre and Graduate-level Research Writing An Cheng, 2018 In the context of the well known pedagogical materials for graduate level writers by Swales Feak An Cheng has written a resource that provides support for instructors who have the daunting task of scaffolding graduate writers efforts to navigate discipline specific research genres genres that may be unfamiliar to instructors themselves Genre and Graduate Level Research Writing is grounded in genre based theory and full of best practices examples The book opens by presenting the case for the use of genre in graduate level research writing and by examining rhetorical consciousness raising and its ties to genre Unique to
