with a critical understanding of the complexities and contradictions at the heart of social media's relationship with society. The Fourth Edition contains new chapters and has updated and revised versions of other chapters. The book includes a new chapter on TikTok in the context of global capitalism and the geopolitical conflict between China and the USA. It explores new topics such as information and social media warfare in the context of Russia's invasion of Ukraine, the implications of Elon Musk's acquisition of Twitter for democracy and the public sphere, the prospects of Twitter alternative Mastodon, digital fascism, influencers, and the attention economy on TikTok, digital capitalism, the role of big data in digital capitalism, The Public Service Media and Public Service Internet Manifesto, social media's digital alienation, and Putinism and information warfare. It explores populism, racism, nationalism, militant patriarchy in a chapter on right-wing authoritarianism on social media that includes two case studies of Donald Trump and Putinism. It analyses the phenomenon of social media influencers in the age of TikTok, Instagram, YouTube, and Snapchat. It explains in an updated chapter what digital capitalism is and what role big data plays in it. It explores the growing prominence of platforms and platform capitalism. It analyses fake news, misinformation, and surveillance capitalism in the context of Facebook, WhatsApp, Cambridge Analytica, and the Internet Research Agency. It shows why Google is simultaneously the Internet's God and Satan. It discusses digital democracy and the digital public sphere in the context of Twitter. It challenges you to envision and achieve a truly social media that serves the purposes of a just and fair world. It introduces platform cooperatives and the Public Service Internet. There are winners and losers in the age of digital capitalism. This book is an essential guide for anyone who wants to critically understand how we got to digital capitalism and capitalist social media, what we can do about it, and what a democratic public sphere looks like.
