Alternative Dispute Resolution in Tanzania J. Mashamba,2014-09-02 Today Alternative Dispute Resolution ADR has gained international recognition and is widely used to complement the conventional methods of resolving disputes through courts of law ADR simply entails all modes of dispute settlement resolution other than the traditional approaches of dispute settlement through courts of law Mainly these modes are negotiation mediation re conciliation and arbitration The modern ADR movement began in the United States as a result of two main concerns for reforming the American justice system the need for better quality processes and outcomes in the judicial system and the need for efficiency of justice ADR was transplanted into the African legal systems in the 1980s and 1990s as a result of the liberalization of the African economies which was accompanied by such conditionalities as reform of the justice and legal sectors under the Structural Adjustment Programmes However most of the methods of ADR that are promoted for inclusion in African justice systems are similar to pre colonial African dispute settlement mechanisms that encouraged restoration of harmony and social bonds in the justice system In Tanzania ADR was introduced in 1994 through Government Notice No 422 which amended the First Schedule to the Civil Procedure Code Act 1966 and it is now an inherent component of the country s legal system In recognition of its importance in civil litigation in Tanzania ADR has been made a compulsory subject in higher learning training institutions for lawyers This handbook provides theories principles examples of practice and materials relating to ADR in Tanzania and is therefore an essential resource for practicing lawyers as well as law students with an interest in Tanzania It also contains additional information on evolving standards in international commercial arbitration which are very useful to legal practitioners and law students Annual Report of the World Meteorological Organization World Meteorological Organization,1994 International Commercial Arbitration Gary B.
