Absolute Destruction:

Destroy Them Gradually Andrew R. Basso, 2024-02-16 Perpetrators of mass atrocities have used displacement to transport victims to killing sites or extermination camps to transfer victims to sites of forced labor and attrition to ethnically homogenize regions by moving victims out of their homes and lands and to destroy populations by depriving them of vital daily needs Displacement has been treated as a corollary practice to crimes committed not a central aspect of their perpetration Destroying Them Gradually examines four cases that illuminate why perpetrators have destroyed populations using displacement policies Germany's genocide of the Herero 1904 1908 Ottoman genocides of Christian minorities 1914 1925 expulsions of Germans from East Central Europe 1943 1952 and climate violence twenty first century Because displacement has been typically framed as a secondary aspect of mass atrocities existing scholarship overlooks how perpetrators use it as a means of executing destruction rather than a vehicle for moving people to a specific location to commit atrocities

Military Ethics Education and the Holocaust Michael Dobkowski, George R. Wilkes, 2025-11-18 This book examines the nature of military ethics education after the Holocaust using a range of national case studies The volume examines educational opportunities offered by a range of militaries including the USA Australia Lithuania Austria and Israel and addresses substantive and contextual problems for ethical reflection on the basis of Holocaust history The first half of the work indicates how the particular educational gains sought from courses on the Holocaust and military ethics provide grounds for wider discussions of the normative consequences of engagement with the Holocaust The chapters in the second half of the book turn to a variety of historical contexts before and during the Holocaust which raise substantive ethical issues the formation of military professionals treatment of prisoners exercise of responsibilities in the face of institutional pressure the relationship between ethical outcomes and organisational ideology and the values of rescuers and resisters including those organising their resistance in divergent Jewish and Christian communities This volume will be of interest to students of military ethics peace and conflict studies defence studies Holocaust and genocide studies and World War II history
