Acceptance is easier
when one is powerless.

Montagno, 2023-09-12 The practice of pastoral care cannot escape the realities of injustices and oppression that often operate in the context where caregiving happens In response Sheryl A Kujawa Holbrook and Karen B Montagno present a compilation of essays that reach beyond individualistic white Western middle class models of caregiving that can mimic systems of injustice Instead the resulting volume offers constructive approaches to caregiving that more effectively meet the needs of those who routinely experience marginalization and oppression Kujawa Holbrook and Montagno argue that the fundamental work of religious traditions including caregiving is about human freedom and wholeness As such Injustice and the Care of Souls helps chaplains pastoral counselors social service workers and other caregivers to better situate their work within the contexts of those seeking care The book also helps caregivers to reflect on ways their social locations affect their work Since its first publication nearly fifteen years ago this book uniquely offered content that situated contexts such as substructures in urban neighborhoods religious liturgical practices and the impact of public policies as the focus for examining critical dynamics
