Building The Blackfish:

Building the Blackfish Dana Story, John Clayton, 1988-09-01 Building the Blackfish D. Story, J. Clayton, Where the Black Fish Swims Molly Hymes, 2025-10-09 Qataruaq a young Eskimo boy living a quiet subsistence life with his family along Alaska's Kusquqvak River sees his world shatter when sickness sweeps through the village leaving his family as the only survivors. With little more than their dog teams and a few belongings they abandon the only home they have ever known and flee into the dead of winter. Their six month journey north becomes a relentless test of endurance across frozen tundra where every mile demands their strength, courage, and will to survive. The land is harsh and unyielding yet amid the desolation they meet villagers whose warm hearts offer rare moments of kindness and hope. But time is against them. As spring nears, thawing ice and boggy ground threaten to trap them, forcing the family to push forward through impossible odds. Where the Black Fish Swims is a story of resilience, family, and hope: one boy's journey through loss and hardship in a desperate search for a new beginning in Alaska's vast, untamed wilderness.
