Strangers on the Shore Albert B. Randall, 2006 While the world's major religions differ in their beliefs they share common spiritual values Although Christians and Muslims disagree about the divinity of Jesus the New Testament and the Qur'an affirm a common set of spiritual virtues that are also found in Hinduism and Buddhism For Christians the fundamental spiritual virtues are most memorably stated in the Beatitudes that begin the Sermon on the Mount Strangers on the Shore explores the virtues in the Beatitudes as they are expressed in the New Testament the Muslim Qur'an the Hindu Bhagavad Gita and the writings and traditions of Buddhism      Jesus Meets the Buddha Ayya Khema, 1995      Modernist Reformations Stephen Sicari, 2022-03-16 Religion has become suspect in literary studies often for good reason as it has become associated with reactionary politics and outdated codified beliefs In Modernist Reformations Poetry as Theology in Eliot Stevens and Joyce the author demonstrates how three high modernist writers work to reform religious experience for an age dominated by the extremes of radical skepticism and dogmatic rigidity The author offers new and provocative readings of these well studied writers Joyce and Stevens are usually considered purely secular and the Eliot in this book is more progressive than reactionary The readings here provide a fresh approach to their work and to the period Using studies of religious experience by sociologists and theologians both from the modernist era and from our own contemporary world to frame the argument the author examines the poetry closely and in detail to demonstrate that the work of these writers does not merely reflect religious themes and issues but does the actual work usually considered theological Their poetry is theology Modernist Reformations will renew and deepen appreciation for these writers and perhaps their efforts at reformation may allow for our own engagement with religion in a secular age      The Open Court Paul Carus, 1911

Buddhist Caves at Aurangabad: Transformations in Art and Religion Pia Brancaccio, 2010-12-17 This is a study that focuses on the art and architecture of a group of Buddhist rock cut monuments excavated on the western edge of the Deccan Plateau in India It analyses the various cultural historical and religious phenomena that shaped the caves at Aurangabad through the first seven centuries of the Common Era and it comments on the Buddhist tradition of the western Deccan as a whole The result is a comprehensive work that does not address exclusively iconography and chronology but looks beyond Aurangabad to the larger artistic and religious traditions of the Indian Subcontinent *Ancient Faiths and Modern: a Dissertation Upon Worships, Legends and Divinities in Central and Western Asia, Europe, and Elsewhere, Before the Christian Era.
