A Modern Guide to Globalization Barrie Axford, Richard Huggins, 2025-10-07 This Modern Guide provides invaluable insights from leading scholars into the burgeoning field of global studies At a time of heated debate regarding the future of humanity and the resilience of earth system processes it examines the strengths and weaknesses of global scholarship as a tool for understanding the human condition

History of Humanity UNESCO, 1996-12-31 The period covered is marked by several turning points such as the spread of iron technology the introduction of innovative irrigation systems and the development of new forms of urbanization In China India and the Mediterranean in Central America and in parts of South America the so-called Classical cultures rose For the first time science attempted to develop independently of myth and religion as a new method to explain nature and human destiny But this period also witnessed the rise of universal religions such as Buddhism Hinduism Christianity and in the seventh century Islam

Ancient Urban Globalisation and Economic Development David A. Warburton, 2023-02-21 This volume is dedicated to the historical context forming the background of contemporary philosophical social and economic issues It summarises the origins of economic activity in Eurasia and Egypt with an interpretation of the development of economics economic thought and social thinking that takes us up to the present day It argues that globalisation is not really new Transpacific communications began shortly after the first states appeared in the Near East and continued intermittently during the following millennia leaving curious traces The book s fundamental claim is that lessons be learnt from deep history about wealth the nature of money and the understanding of justice and interpreting their importance is essential Some of the book s points are relevant to archaeological theory and some are central to understanding human social organisations Debating the claims made and their potential significance will interest archaeologists historians social scientists and policy makers
