Builder Of Kaba:

Between Jerusalem and Mecca Uri Rubin (z"l),2023-10-04 This book sheds new light on Jerusalem s status in early Islam The sanctity of the city is already discerned in the Qur n The vision of redemption that the Qur n displays coincides with the messianic expectations that have swept throughout the entire region especially among the Jews due to the attempted renewal of Jewish liturgy in Jerusalem following the Persian victory over Byzantium in 614 On the other hand the Qur n also portrays the holiness of Mecca and the Ka ba This book shows how it promotes their pre Islamic holiness around the image of Abraham and Ishmael The changing balance between the sanctity of Jerusalem and the sanctity of Mecca in favor of the latter is noticeable in the Qur n as one proceeds from the Meccan s ras to the Medinan ones The change occurs against the background of the twist in relations between Mu ammad and the Jews This book also points out the correlation between Mu ammad s situation in Medina and events in Palestine involving the victory of the Byzantines over the Persians in 628 as alluded to in the opening passage of S rat al R m 30 Thie work illuminates the growing sanctity of Jerusalem following the arrival of the first Muslims to Palestine As in the Qur n Mecca continued to struggle to preserve its status as a holy city vis vis that of Jerusalem Key aspects of this struggle are reflected in traditions in which patterns of sanctity move from Jerusalem to Mecca and which this book also scrutinizes Builder ,2006 Quarterly Statement - Palestine Exploration Fund Palestine Exploration Fund,1905 A Companion to Islamic Art and Architecture Finbarr Barry Flood,Gulru Necipoglu,2017-06-16 The two volume Companion to Islamic Art and Architecture bridges the gap between monograph and survey text by providing a new level of access and interpretation to Islamic art The more than 50 newly commissioned essays revisit canonical topics and include original approaches and scholarship on neglected aspects of the field This two volume Companion showcases more than 50 specially commissioned essays and an introduction that survey Islamic art and architecture in all its traditional grandeur Essays are organized according to a new chronological geographical paradigm that remaps the unprecedented expansion of the field and reflects the nuances of major artistic and political developments during the 1400 year span The Companion represents recent developments in the field and encourages future horizons by commissioning innovative essays that provide fresh perspectives on canonical subjects such as early Islamic art sacred spaces palaces urbanism ornament arts of the book and the portable arts while introducing others that have been previously neglected including unexplored geographies and periods transregional connectivities talismans and magic consumption and networks of portability museums and collecting and contemporary art worlds the essays entail strong comparative and historiographic dimensions The volumes are accompanied by a map and each subsection is preceded by a brief outline of the main cultural and historical developments during the period in question The volumes include periods and regions typically excluded from survey books including modern and contemporary art architecture China Indonesia Sub Saharan Africa Sicily the New World Americas One Thousand Roads to Mecca Michael Wolfe,2015-09-29 Wolfe does an exemplary job of detailing the ceremonies performed at Mecca and the reasons behind them Highly recommended Library Journal starred review This updated and expanded edition of One Thousand Roads to Mecca collects significant works by observant travel writers from the East and West over the last ten centuries including two new contemporary narratives creating a comprehensive multifaceted literary portrait of the enduring tradition Since its inception in the seventh century the pilgrimage to Mecca has been the central theme in a large body of Islamic travel literature Beginning with the European Renaissance it has also been the subject for a handful of adventurous writers from the West who through conversion or connivance managed to slip inside the walls of a city forbidden to non Muslims These very different literary traditions form distinct impressions of a spirited conversation in which Mecca is the common destination and Islam the common subject of inquiry Along with an introduction by Reza Aslan featured writers include Ibn Battuta J L Burckhardt Sir Richard Burton the Begum of Bhopal John F Keane Winifred Stegar Muhammad Asad Lady Evelyn Cobbald Jalal Al e Ahmad and Malcolm X One Thousand Roads to Mecca is a historically geographically and ethnically diverse collection of travel writing that adds substantially to the literature of Islam and the West Serves as an excellent introduction to a religion people culture and philosophy Santa Cruz Sentinel
