Into a Light Both Brilliant and Unseen Malin Pereira, 2010-12 Malin Pereira's collection of eight interviews with leading contemporary African American poets offers an in depth look at the cultural and aesthetic perspectives of the post Black Arts Movement generation. This volume includes unpublished interviews Pereira conducted with Wanda Coleman Yusef Komunyakaa Thylias Moss Harryette Mullen Cornelius Eady and Elizabeth Alexander as well as conversations with Rita Dove and Cyrus Cassells previously in print. Largely published since 1980 each of these poets has at least four books. Their influence on new generations of poets has been wide reaching. The work of this group says Pereira is a departure from the previous generation's proscriptive manifestos in favor of more inclusive voices perspectives and techniques. Although these poets reject a rigid adherence to a specific black aesthetic their work just as effectively probes racism stereotyping and racial politics. Unlike Amiri Baraka's claim in Home that he becomes blacker and blacker positioning race as a defining essence these poets imagine a plurality of ideas about the relationship between blackness and black poetry. They question the idea of an established literary canon defining black literature. For these poets Pereira says the idea of home is found both in black poetry circles and in the wider transnational community of literature. A Sarah Mills Hodge Foundation Publication

Masterplots Two Tyrone Williams, 2009. Williams Xavier U presents 367 three to four page essays, 101 commissioned new for this edition on significant African American works of literature from Afrocentricity, The Theory of Social Change, a work of cultural criticism by Molefi K. Asante to Zami: A New Spelling of My Name, the biomythography of Audre Lorde. The works covered range from early colonial era writings through works of the beginning of the 21st century. Most of the essays address a single long work, while others review an author's work in a certain genre such as short fiction, poetry, essays, or speeches. Each entry begins with information on title, subtitle, author's name, and birth/death dates, type of work, date of first publication, and production. For fiction, information is also presented on type of plot, setting, and principal characters. The essays then describe events or contents of the work and address broad themes and meanings connected to the work. Essays on fiction works include discussion of main character or characters, while nonfiction work includes sections on form and content and analysis. All essays end with discussion of critical context. Also included with the essays are annotated bibliographies on secondary sources. The final volume includes indexes organized by type of work, title, and authors. Examples of works covered in addition to the two already mentioned include Ain't I a Woman by bell hooks, The Autobiography of Malcolm X by Malcolm X, Babel 17 by Samuel R.
