Bo The Puppy With Diabetes:

Bo, the Puppy with Diabetes Norma Flaherty, 2002-05 Ears of the blind Painting a picture with words Visions that cannot only be seen but also heard Ignoring the fact that these eyes don't see proper Focus more on sound and see a clearer picture For words make it possible for everyone to see That it doesn't take sight to recognize obvious beauty It's a treat a masterpiece a piece of art Something so rich that it's heard but felt more in the heart A soul cannot depend on sight to tell us what life is about There are times we all must find truth within pure words spoken from the mouth So I'll speak to the ears of the blind Helping those that wish to see to no longer look in color but now in rhyme Visualizing life as a drawing of their own A world where everything is familiar even the unknown The darkest and most complicated moments will make sense Never leaving anyone stranded or in suspense I will write the truth and I'll speak words of beauty Coloring my words bright enough for anybody to see With hopes we all learn that true vision is inside the mind Close your eye Bo, the Puppy with Diabetes Norma Flaherty, 2002-05-01 NULL Urinalysis in the Dog and Cat Dennis J.
