Bodies And Souls:

Bodies and Souls, or Spirited Bodies? Nancey Murphy, 2006-01-12 Are humans composed of a body and a nonmaterial mind or soul or are we purely physical beings Opinion is sharply divided over this issue In this clear and concise book Nancey Murphy argues for a physicalist account but one that does not diminish traditional views of humans as rational moral and capable of relating to God This position is motivated not only by developments in science and philosophy but also by biblical studies and Christian theology The reader is invited to appreciate the ways in which organisms are more than the sum of their parts That higher human capacities such as morality free will and religious awareness emerge from our neurobiological complexity and develop through our relation to others to our cultural inheritance and most importantly to God Murphy addresses the questions of human uniqueness religious experience and personal identity before and after bodily resurrection

Bodies and Souls, Or Spirited Bodies? Nancey C. Murphy, 2009 Are We Bodies or Souls? Richard Swinburne, 2019-07-25 What are humans What makes us who we are Many think that we are just complicated machines or animals that are different from machines only by being conscious In Are We Bodies or Souls Richard Swinburne comes to the defence of the soul and presents new philosophical arguments that are supported by modern neuroscience When scientific advances enable neuroscientists to transplant a part of brain into a new body he reasons no matter how much we can find out about their brain activity or conscious experiences we will never know whether the resulting person is the same as before or somebody entirely new Swinburne thus argues that we are immaterial souls sustained in existence by our brains Sensations thoughts and intentions are conscious events in our souls that cause events in our brains While scientists might discover some of the laws of nature that determine conscious events and brain events each person's soul is an individual thing and this is what ultimately makes us who we are The Soul of Theological Anthropology Joshua R. Farris, 2016-11-25

Recent research in the philosophy of religion anthropology and philosophy of mind has prompted the need for a more integrated comprehensive and systematic theology of human nature This project constructively develops a theological accounting of human persons by drawing from a Cartesian as a term of art model of anthropology which is motivated by a long tradition As was common among patristics medievals and Reformed Scholastics Farris draws from philosophical resources to articulate Christian doctrine as he approaches theological anthropology Exploring a substance dualism model the author highlights relevant theological texts and passages of Scripture arguing that this model accounts for doctrinal essentials concerning theological anthropology While Farris is not explicitly interested in thorough critique of materialist ontology he notes some of the significant problems associated with it Rather the present project is an attempt to revitalize the resources found in Cartesianism by responding to some common worries associated with it Plotinos Plotinus, 1918

The Creation of Self Joshua R. Farris, 2023-06-30 Situated in broader science and religion discussions The Creation of Self is the first book length defense of a creationist view of persons as souls This book therefore serves as both a novel argument for God's creation of selves and as a critique of contemporary materialist and emergent self alternatives critically examining naturalistic views that argue for a regular law like process behind the emergence of personhood Author Joshua Farris argues on the assumption that persons are fundamentally unique individuals that look more like singularities of nature rather than material products grounded in regularity or predictability from past events By extending the basic intuition that we are unique and mysterious individuals Farris develops a sophisticated analytic defense of the soul that requires a sufficient explanation not found in nature but made by a Creator who has intentions and the power to bring about novel entities in the world The Creation of Self gives philosophers theologians and the lay intellectual grounding for thinking about persons as religious beings It aims to help readers understand why recent scientifically motivated objections to the soul are unsuccessful and why we must consider a religious conception of persons as souls as a common starting point Eustochian books. 46-54; Comment Plotinus, Kenneth Sylvan Guthrie, 1918 Before and After Avicenna Avicenna Study Group. Conference, 2003-01-01 This collection of papers addresses a variety of aspects of the life and thought of the medieval philosopher Avicenna including his reception of Classical philosophy his views on topics such as metaphysics psychology and medicine and the reception of his thought by later authors Body and Mind William McDougall, 1911 Science of the Soul in Ibn Sīnā's Pointers and Reminders Michael A. Rapoport, 2023-02-13 In Science of the Soul in Ibn Sīnā's Pointers and Reminders Michael A Rapoport provides a philological and interpretive guide for critically reading and interpreting Ibn Sīnā's Avicenna d 1037 most challenging and influential text Rapoport argues that chapters VII X of the Pointers present scientific explanations for phenomena related to the human soul from intellection to divination magic and marvels within the framework of Ibn Sīnā's Metaphysics of the Rational Soul This book dispels widespread notions that the Pointers represents Ibn Sīnā's mystical or Sufi philosophy and therefore stands apart from the rest of his corpus The Classical Weekly, 1920 Body and Mind Walter Byron McDougall, 1911 Proceedings IEEE Computer Society. TC on Distributed Processing, 1999 Proceedings of a June 1999 conference describing new areas in distributed computing including novel Internet applications electronic commerce mobile and nomadic systems and groupware Papers are arranged in sections on areas such as broadcast and multicast fault tolerance operating systems r Plotinos ; Complete Works Plotinus, Kenneth Sylvan Guthrie, 1918 Bulletin of the Philosophical Society of Washington, Vol. 6(1884) - 10(1888), 1888 Applied Ethics Elizabeth Jackson, Tyron Goldschmidt, Dustin Crummett, Rebecca Chan, 2021-11-03 Applied Ethics An Impartial Introduction prepares readers to evaluate selected classical and contemporary problems in applied ethics in a way that does justice to their complexity without sacrificing clarity or fairness of representation Its balanced exposition and analysis enhanced by helpful pedagogical features make it an ideal book for introducing the ethics of real life problems including abortion animal rights disability the environment poverty and punishment The Prayer-book Evan Daniel, 1909 Plotinos: Amelio-Porphyrion books. 22-33 Plotinus, Kenneth Sylvan Guthrie, 1918 Averroes' Tahafut al-Tahafut
