Body Of Beatrice:

The Body of Beatrice Robert Pogue Harrison, 1988 The Michigan Chimes ,1921 Chaucer's Dante Richard Neuse, 2023-11-15 Richard Neuse here explores the relationship between two great medieval epics Dante's Divine Comedy and Chaucer's Canterbury Tales He argues that Dante's attraction for Chaucer lay not so much in the spiritual dimension of the Divine Comedy as in the human Borrowing Bertolt Brecht's phrase epic theater Neuse underscores the interest of both poets in presenting as on a stage flesh and blood characters in which readers would recognize the authors as well as themselves As spiritual autobiography both poems challenge the traditional medieval mode of allegory with its tendency to separate body and soul matter and spirit Thus Neuse demonstrates that Chaucer and Dante embody a humanism not generally attributed to the fourteenth century This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1991 Poems Percy Bysshe Shelley, 1927

South Western Reporter. Second Series ,1928 Notes and Queries ,1878 No Mother, No Future Kailin Wright, 2026-02-20 No Mother No Future investigates how theatre and performance use pregnancy loss to represent a lost future Spanning the twentieth and twenty first centuries this book analyzes performances that challenge dominant cultural scripts linking motherhood with futurity and nationhood in Canada and the United States Combining intersectional feminism with theories of reproductive justice and reproductive futurity this work interrogates how pregnancy loss especially when experienced by those excluded from white heteronormative ideals of motherhood is often portrayed as a societal failure It examines reproductive loss not only as a dramatic device but also as a political reality shaped by systemic violence including slavery forced sterilization and child welfare policies that disproportionately target Indigenous and Black communities Through in depth analyses and original interviews with playwrights directors and actors this volume offers a critical framework for understanding how performance stages reproductive loss as a site of resistance As the first book length study of motherhood and reproduction in Canadian theatre it is essential reading for scholars and students in theatre performance studies feminist theory cultural studies and reproductive justice Notes and Queries: A Medium of Inter-Communication for Literary Men, Artists, Antiquaries, Genealogists, Etc ,1878 Walks in Rome Augustus John Cuthbert Hare, 1882

On the Other Side(s) of 150 Linda M. Morra, Sarah Henzi, 2021-05-20 On the Other Side(s) of 150 explores the different literary historical and cultural legacies of Canada's sesquicentennial celebrations It asks vital questions about the ways that histories and stories have been suppressed and invites consideration about what happens once a commemorative moment has passed Like a Cubist painting this modality offers a critical strategy by which also to approach the volume as dismantling reassembling and re enacting existing commemorative tropes as offering multiple conditional and contingent viewpoints that unfold over time and as generating a broader although far from being comprehensive range of counter memorial performances The chapters in this volume are thus provisional interconnected and adaptive they offer critical assemblages by which to approach commemorative narratives or showcase lacunae therein by which to return to and intervene in ongoing readings of the past from the present moment and by which not necessarily to resolve but rather to understand the troubled and troubling narratives of the present moment Contributors propose that these preoccupations are not a means of turning away from present concerns but rather a means of grappling with how the past informs or is shaped to inform them and how such concerns are defined by immediate social contexts and networks

Sensible Ecstasy Amy Hollywood, 2010-01-15
 Sensible Ecstasy investigates the attraction to excessive forms of mysticism among twentieth century French intellectuals and demonstrates the work that the figure of the mystic does for these thinkers With special attention to Georges Bataille Simone de Beauvoir Jacques Lacan and Luce Irigaray Amy Hollywood asks why resolutely secular even anti Christian intellectuals are drawn to affective bodily and widely denigrated forms of mysticism What is particular to these thinkers Hollywood reveals is their attention to forms of mysticism associated with women They regard mystics such as Angela of Foligno Hadewijch and Teresa of Avila not as emotionally excessive or escapist but as unique in their ability to think outside of the restrictive oppositions that continue to afflict our understanding of subjectivity the body and sexual difference Mystics such as these like their twentieth century descendants bridge the gaps between action and contemplation emotion and reason and body and soul offering new ways of thinking about language and the limits of representation
