Boganis Letters From The Hunt:

Boganis, Letters from the Hunt Wilhelm Dinesen, 1987-01-01 Naturiagttagelser fra august 1886 til november 1888 skrevet af Karen Blixens far som var en ansvarsbevidst jeger der elskede naturen og dyrene Isak Dinesen Judith Thurman, 2022-12-06 Judith Thurman's brilliant National Book Award winning biography of Isak Dinesen now with a new foreword by the author A brilliant literary portrait Isak Dinesen remains the only comprehensive biography of one of the greatest storytellers of our time Dinesen's magnificent memoir Out of Africa established her as a major twentieth century author who was twice nominated for the Nobel Prize With exceptional grace Judith Thurman's classic work explores Dinesen's life Until the appearance of this book the life and art of Isak Dinesen have been as Dinesen herself wrote of two lovers in a tale a pair of locked caskets each containing the key to the other Judith Thurman has provided the master key to them both

Knut Hamsun Monika Žagar, 2011-07-01 Awarded the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1920 Knut Hamsun 1859-1952 was a towering figure of Norwegian letters He was also a Nazi sympathizer and supporter of the German occupation of Norway during the Second World War In 1943 Hamsun sent his Nobel medal to Third Reich propaganda minister Joseph Goebbels as a token of his admiration and authored a reverential obituary for Hitler in May 1945 For decades scholars have wrestled with the dichotomy between Hamsun's merits as a writer and his infamous ties to Nazism In her incisive study of Hamsun Monika Žagar refuses to separate his political and cultural ideas from an analysis of his highly regarded writing Her analysis reveals the ways in which messages of racism and sexism appear in plays fiction and none too subtle nonfiction produced by a prolific author over the course of his long career In the process Žagar illuminates Norway's changing social relations and long history of interaction with other peoples Focusing on selected masterpieces as well as writings hitherto largely ignored Žagar demonstrates that Hamsun did not arrive at his notions of race and gender late in life Rather his ideas were rooted in a mindset that idealized Norwegian rural life embraced racial hierarchy and tightly defined the acceptable notion of women in society Making the case that Hamsun's support of Nazi political ideals was a natural outgrowth of his reactionary aversion to modernity Knut Hamsun serves as a corrective to scholarship treating Hamsun's Nazi ties as unpleasant but peripheral details in a life of literary achievement

Isak Dinesen's Ecological Power Peter Mortensen, 2025-11-27 Danish writer Isak Dinesen Karen Blixen 1885-1962 was colonial plantation manager big game hunter animal rights activist nature conservationist flower gardener and much more Most importantly Dinesen wrote thought provoking mind bending boundary shifting tales that can help us think constructively and creatively about many facets of life on our troubled planet Isak Dinesen's Ecological Power reexamines Dinesen in the context of 21st century debates about time animals plants masculinity families the idea of nature and the very question of what it means to be human in a more than human world We urgently need to power our societies and imaginations in new ways and this book reconsiders Dinesen's stories as an inexhaustible and so far largely untapped source of ecocultural energy A History of Danish Literature Sven Hakon Rossel, 1992-01-01

Volume 1 Daguerreotypes and Other Essays Isak Dinesen,1979 Isak Dinesen had an original approach to life that permeated all her work She loved storytelling with the result that most of her essays are quasi narratives which proceed not from major to minor premise but from one anecdote to another as the way of making concrete whatever idea she is considering Her work is a delight and at times a marvel The New Yorker Through these daguerreotypes we begin to understand other periods the renunciations of World War I the purpose of houses and mansions of ritual ceremonials such as tatooning We are given a fresh and vivid view of the women s movement which urges that what our small society needs beyond human beings who have demonstrated what they can do is people who are Indeed our own time she wrote in 1953 can be said to need a revision from doing to being She demonstrated it in her own work and craft with courage and with dignity This collection is as real as a gallery of old daguerreotypes moving and unfaded The work as Hannah Arendt says of a wise woman Robert Kirsch Los Angeles Times These essays have the flavor of good conversation humorous easy personal but not oppressive the distillation of reading thought and experience Their subjects are of surprisingly current interest We need make no concessions to the past need not set our watches back to historical Isak Dinesen was not a faddish thinker In history it is always the human element that has a chance for eternal life Dinesen remarks and she gives these essays their chance

Twentieth-century Danish Writers Marianne Stecher-Hansen,1999 Essays on Danish writers of the twentieth century during the democratization of the literary institution Covers various trends such as naturalism realism symbolism and Romanticism social orientation and psychological introspection Discusses a new generation of woman writers who entered the literary scene during this period as well as the impact of Cultural Radicalism the movement of the intellectual Left

Scandinavica Elias Bredsdorff,1988 Small Press Review ,1989 Knut Hamsun Harald S. Næss,1984 Biografie van de Noorse schrijver 1859 1952 The Aristocratic Universe of Karen Blixen Frantz Leander Hansen,2003 Karen Blixen s works are explored in the light of a passionate insistence on living out this double nature of the divine and the demonic The aristocratic is examined as her depiction of a conduct of life that is faithful to destiny The aristocratic viewpoint is in tune with eternity and places no obstructive morality between self and life Vitality has its source in direct access to the ocean of inexhaustible opportunities with which life presents us The world in her novel Out of Africa for example plays a key role as the consummate illustration of an aristocratic culture The aesthetic guidelines for literary form as well as art as advocated by Karen Blixen are discussed and her view of art is similarly defined and explained as aristocratic Her private correspondence is drawn upon to shed new light on her life and work The Aristocratic Universe of Karen Blixen explores the confrontation between the different cultures and environments which are seen to limit and censure natural behavior while at the same time imposing upon humankind unnecessary notions of sin and guilt Analysis of her stories especially Babette s Feast and of her world view show how Karen Blixen maps out hostility to destiny this being a violation of Creation which is viewed as both divine and demonic Photographs and color pictures of Blixen s art work are also included The Publishers Weekly ,1988 Book Review Index ,1987 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation The Paris Review Interviews, III Philip Gourevitch,2006 Gift of Christine Bombaro Class of 1993 “The” Athenaeum ,1889
