Business Owners Who Are Blind Or Visually Impaired Jobs That Matter:

Journal of Visual Impairment & Blindness, 2006-07 Business Owners Who Are Blind Or Visually Impaired Deborah Kendrick, 2000 The second title in the exciting Jobs That Matter series written by an award winning blind journalist Business Owners Who Are Blind or Visually Impaired demonstrates the wide range of careers and talents that can be pursued by persons with visual impairments Each profile features a successful individual who has accomplished his or her dream of business ownership and who shares important insights From a lawyer and an accountant to a florist and a gourmet cook the range of engaging stories told will inspire young adults with visual impairments and the parents teachers and counselors who advise them

Blindness and the Visionary John Coles, 2012-07-18 John Wilson did more than anyone else to prevent and cure blindness and help blind people throughout the world between the 1940s and his death in 1999 In addition he made a significant contribution to the cause of disabled people in general His achievements deserve comparison with those of other charismatic figures such as Helen Keller and Albert Schweitzer A man of action and unflagging energy with exceptional determination imagination and compassion and analytical and organizational ability he changed millions of people's lives for the better by developing systems and techniques for preventing and curing blindness and by spurring on the process by which blind people have come to be able to play a full active and creative role in society His story is a moving one Blinded himself in a school experiment in 1931 at the age of twelve he went on to read law at Oxford After joining the National Institute for the Blind as an administrator he took part in 1946-7 in an epic government sponsored tour of the African and Middle Eastern territories in what was then the British Empire that lasted nine months studying the intractable problems of blindness there It led to the formation of what was to become the Royal Commonwealth Society for the Blind now known as Sight Savers International In the wake of his sustained campaigns for the cure and prevention of blindness above all in Africa and the Indian sub continent underpinned by the indomitable support of his wife Jean John Wilson became a leading activist and mentor for blind and disabled people both at the UN and world wide and he was to found further important institutions such as the International Agency for the Prevention of Blindness and Impact which focusses on the universal challenge of avoidable disability He was an enthusiastic globe trotter a powerful orator a much loved member of his family and a highly respected friend and colleague of large numbers of people with whom he worked across the continents This inspiring tale of how one remarkable man travelled the world and transformed countless lives will have a strong appeal to the general public It will also be of direct interest to people involved in charities and other institutions particularly those concerned with blindness and disability Meticulously researched it is primarily based on John Wilson's Braille diaries and his other papers the records at Sight Savers and interviews in many different countries with people who knew him Lord Colin Low chairman Royal National Institute of the Blind I have just finished reading Blindness and the Visionary and felt I must write and tell you how enthralling I found it it is an absolutely splendid addition to the literature on blindness in every way worthy of its subject
